
Carson continued

ORGANIZED AGAINST WHOM?
THE LABOR UNION IN AMERICA

This is a persuasive explanation of the failure of coercive union intervention. A valuable history for employees as well as employers, students as well as teachers.

114 pages

Paperback 2425PF $5.00

THROTTLING THE RAILROADS

The railroads drew the American people into an economic union. This book tells the story of government regulation and its massive debilitating impact on a once great industry. An important case study.

143 pages

Cloth 2430CF $4.00

Paperback 2430PF $2.00

THE WORLD IN THE GRIP OF AN IDEA

A major new interpretation of 20th-century collectivism is the distinction—and most frightening feature of this century. While dramatically tracing this history, Dr. Carson also sees rays of hope in a flowering of individualism.

576 pages

Cloth 2435CF $14.95

John Chamberlain

A wonderful memoir of the people and ideas which influenced John Chamberlain and were, in turn, touched by him. A fascinating personal history of the growth of the libertarian and conservative movements.

203 pages

Cloth 2715CX $6.00

THE ROOTS OF CAPITALISM

The connection between economic thought and practice is vital. Chamberlain has woven together a fast-paced, provocative look at the nature and accomplishments of American capitalism. It is the story of freedom and production.

293 pages

Cloth 2720CX $9.00

Listings continue on page 19

How to Order:

On all prepaid orders to be shipped to a single address, FEE will absorb shipping charges other than airmail or special delivery. The order may be shipped by truck or by United Parcel Service, so please specify the street address.

For shipments to a foreign address, payment must accompany order, payable in U.S. dollars at a U.S. bank.

A $2.00 billing charge will be added on each order not paid in advance. Also, if delivery is requested to more than one address, there will be a $2.00 charge for each additional delivery point.

Please mail your order to: The Foundation for Economic Education, Irvington-on-Hudson, New York 10533.