

ous enough, he can create a house and claim it as his own. If he is careless enough to let the government do it for him, he will live in the kind of walled enclosure which compulsory state socialism affords—public housing for those who serve political masters.

Single Copy Free

8 copies	$1.00
25 copies	2.50
50 copies	4.75
100 copies	9.00

Other prices on request.

The Foundation for Economic Education, while non-profit and nonpolitical, is nonetheless an educational champion of private ownership, the profit and loss system, and limited government. Its studies in economics, political science, and related subjects are available to all. It is responsible to no outside person or group. It is supported only by gifts and the sale of its publications. Additional information on request.