This “passport” offers a sampling of Boys Town’s diverse student population. It is unique however, since it is a “Passport to Nachas”. Through your continued generous support, which makes it possible for Boys Town to provide its students with a quality technological, academic and religious education, you can rightfully share in the nachas of “your” boys’ achievements.

Despite their different languages and cultures, these youngsters live and learn together at Boys Town’s 18-acre campus and emerge as the builders and leaders of Israel.

Perhaps the message of this “Passport to Nachas” was best expressed by the late PRESIDENT CHAIM HERZOG, after his visit to Boys Town . . .
