WORLD VIEW PUBLISHERS

Presenting a unique collection of Marxist literature on world politics, labor, racism, and sexual oppression.

workers world WEEKLY NEWSPAPER

For twenty years, this workers' paper has been providing news and analysis that you can never get from the big business media. Articles are written by participants in the struggle—trade unionists, the unemployed, fighters from tenants' and community groups, members of oppressed nations, activists and leaders in the women's and gay liberation movements.

Workers World draws not only on the experience of those in the struggle, but on the political understanding of Workers World Party, a multinational workers' party that has long provided revolutionary answers to the difficult questions facing the movement of workers and oppressed.
