Assistant to the President

Dear Mr. Temple:

This small journal is gaining readers among thoughtfully-concerned Americans, those who feel that just "being against socialism" is not enough -- that we must be vigorously for our hard-won American freedoms if we are to keep them. Yet few of us can competently discuss those freedoms, explain them, defend them.

THE FREEMAN has but one purpose: To aid those of us who would aid the freedom cause effectively. THE FREEMAN is unique in this respect. It is a monthly text on free enterprise which appeals to the serious-minded.

Perhaps you, too, will find THE FREEMAN's material inspirational. I believe you will find all of it informative. You may receive THE FREEMAN regularly if you wish, without cost or obligation, via the invitation card enclosed. I hope you will mail it today.

Cordially,

Mrs. Glenn B. Eastburn

(These are the materials of the Foundation's Development Program. If you have certain friends who incline toward freedom ideas, and would care to give us their names, we will be glad to forward copies to them.)
