

TO THE RAINBOW CAGE...

"When men can no longer be theists, they must, if they are civilized...become humanists."

Being trained from childhood in the environment. And seeing the discord in nature, especially among humans, plus the antagonisms of religion. And---Having graduated with honors in modern education with advanced degrees in social engineering...

Applying for and receiving a government grant I decided to take certain matters in hand.

For at the University I was horrified to learn of civilizations grotesque past of tooth and fang and claw; of war and man's inhumanity to his fellow man. I set about to enter the arena for fundamental betterment of both nature and society. It was a glorious adventure into the New World Order.

So---I built a large cage and in it I put a cat and a dog. After a little hand training by moving their eating bowls closer each day I brought the cat and the dog to a point where they lived peaceably together.

Flushed with success in this preliminary endeavour I introduced a pig a goat and a kangaroo, some fine feathered birds and a monkey into the cage. With plenty of food and working on their emotional stability over fear and environmental dilemma...adjustments came. They learned to live in complete harmony. Results were most rewarding.

So encouraged was I by such glorious success I moved into the final phase of my experiment...I added an Irish Catholic, a Scot Presbyterian, a Jew, A Church of Christ Evangelist, a Muslim from Turkestan and a Buddhist from China, along with a Baptist Missionary that I had captured on the same trip...

In a very short while there wasn't a single living thing left in the cage.

WHY?
