

- VOL. I, NO. 1: SYMPOSIUM ON CREATION. Geological, mathematical, philosophical, biological, theological and other approaches to the subject of creation; etc.
- VOL. I, NO. 2: SYMPOSIUM ON SATANISM. Occultism from the days of the early churches to the present, its meaning, and the Christian perspective; etc.
- VOL. II, NO. 1: SYMPOSIUM ON CHRISTIAN ECONOMICS. Medieval, Reformation, and contemporary developments; the causes of inflation, Manichaeism, law, and economics; and much more.
- VOL. II, NO. 2: SYMPOSIUM ON BIBLICAL LAW. What Scripture tells us about law; the coming crisis in criminal investigations; pornography, community, and the function of law; and much more.
- VOL. III, NO. 1: SYMPOSIUM ON CHRISTIANITY AND THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION. The Christian roots; the religious liberty issue; the Franklin legend; myths and realities of 1776, etc.
- VOL. III, NO. 2: SYMPOSIUM ON THE MILLENNIUM. Studies of the doctrine of last things; the Biblical teaching concerning history, and man's responsibilities therein; what doctrine has powered Christian action?
- VOL. IV, NO. 1: SYMPOSIUM ON CHRISTIAN EDUCATION. The importance of Christian Schools, and their role in the life of the faithful; their part in creating a Christian Society.
- VOL. IV, NO. 2: SYMPOSIUM ON THE FAMILY. The family is the key institution under God, and basic to Christian reconstruction. The war on the family must be understood, and the family strengthened.
- VOL. V, NO. 1: SYMPOSIUM ON POLITICS. Modern politics is highly religious, but its religion is humanism. The Journal examines the Christian alternative.
- VOL. V, NO. 2: SYMPOSIUM ON PURITANISM & LAW. The Puritans believed in law and in the grace of law. They were not antinomians. Both Continental and American Puritanism are studied.
- VOL. VI, NO. 1: SYMPOSIUM ON PURITANISM & PROGRESS. The Puritans believed in and were a major force for progress because of their doctrines.
- VOL. VI, NO. 2: SYMPOSIUM ON PURITANISM AND SOCIETY. The Puritans held a view of society which is now under major attack but is basic to a Christian culture.
- VOL. VII, NO. 1: SYMPOSIUM ON INFLATION. Inflation is not only an economic concern but at root a moral problem. Any analysis of economics must deal also with the theological and moral aspects as well.
- VOL. VII, NO. 2: SYMPOSIUM ON EVANGELISM. Evangelism as a practical and necessary concern of the church requires sound theological and practical steps to be effective.
- VOL. VIII, NO. 1: SYMPOSIUM ON SOCIAL ACTION. The Christian mission is to every area of life, including the social structures, and hence all areas are to be brought under Christ's dominion.
- VOL. VIII, NO. 2: SYMPOSIUM ON ATONEMENT. At the heart of our faith is the doctrine of the atonement. This has tremendous implications for all of life. This is more than a church doctrine: it is impossible for man to live without atonement, but all too often the atonement he seeks is a false one.
- VOL. IX, NOS. 1 & 2: SYMPOSIUM ON CHRISTIAN RECONSTRUCTION IN THE WESTERN WORLD TODAY. (Special double issue 1982-1983). Christian reconstruction is under way today in the church, in politics, in science, the arts, daily living, and many other areas. In this issue, there are reports on what is happening, as well as on critical issues which face us and require reconstruction.
- VOL. X, NO. 1: SYMPOSIUM ON CHRISTIANITY IN THE MEDIA AND THE ARTS. (1983) Christian reconstruction cannot be accomplished without expanding the Christian presence and influence in all branches of the media and the arts.
- VOL. X, NO. 2: SYMPOSIUM ON BUSINESS. This issue deals with the relationship of the Christian faith to the world of business.
- VOL. XI, NO. 1: SYMPOSIUM ON THE REFORMATION IN THE ARTS AND MEDIA. (1986)
