

Table of Contents

1. A New Era Unfolds, by Lester R. Brown
Environmental Degradation: The Economic Costs
Growth in Food Output Slowing
The End of Rapid GNP Growth
The Shape of a New World
Facing Up to Change
2. Facing Water Scarcity, by Sandra Postel
Signs of Unsustainability
Water-Thrifty Food Production
Industrial Recycling
Conserving in Cities
Toward Water Security
3. Reviving Reefs, by Peter Weber
The Ecology of Reefs
Reefs on the Rocks
Corals in Hot Water
Setting Priorities
4. Including Women in Development,
by Jodi L. Jacobson
The Dimensions of Gender Bias
Cash Crops Versus Food Security
The Loss of Forest Resources
Female Poverty and the Population Trap
Toward A New Framework for Development
5. Supporting Indigenous Peoples,
by Alan Thein Durning
State of the Nations
Homelands
Stewards
Rising from the Frontier
6. Providing Energy in Developing Countries,
by Nicholas Lenssen
The Energy Dilemma
Energy Efficiency: The Potential Revolution
Other Supply Choices
Energy Policies for Development
7. Rediscovering Rail, by Marcia D. Lowe
Benefits of Rail
The Downhill Slide of Trains
Signs of a Rail Revival
Investing in the Future
8. Preparing for Peace, by Michael Renner
From Arms Control to Disarmament
Trust and Verify
Waging Peace
Reforming the United Nations
9. Reconciling Trade and the Environment,
by Hilary F. French
Trade and the Global Resource Base
Trade and Industrial Hazards
Environmental Protectionism?
Toward Greener Trade
10. Investing in the Future,
by Christopher Flavin and John E. Young
The Wasteland and Beyond
Tastier Carrots, Harder Sticks
Greening the Corporation
The Next Industrial Revolution
Sustainable Industry?

State of the

- 250 Pages
- More than 50 Figures and Tables
- Fully Indexed and Referenced

Selected Tables and Figures

- Annual U.S. Economic Losses from Global Warming with Doubling of Greenhouse Gases
- Areas Legally Controlled by Indigenous Peoples, Selected Countries, 1992
- Water-Scarce Countries, 1992, with Projections for 2010
- World Commercial Energy Consumption, 1970 and 1990
- Energy Use in Developing Countries, by Sector
- Road Versus Rail Travel, Selected Countries, Late Eighties
- Leading Exporters and Importers of Major Conventional Weapons, 1986-90
- Budgets and Personnel of U.N. Peacekeeping Operations