Following message from President Johnson for President Humberto Castello Branco:

"Please accept my sincere congratulations on your election as President of The United States of Brazil. We in The United States of America earnestly desire the broadening and deepening of the historic friendship and mutually beneficial relations that have always existed between our two nations. By working together our respective countries within a democratic framework, can make a great contribution to the cause of human welfare and progress in the hemisphere and the world. Lyndon B. Johnson"
