

The Arlington Advocate, Thursday, April 17, 1986

The Arlington Advocate

What's Happening

In a scene from "The Nation Thief," a play being presented by the Arlington Affinity Group, William Walker (played by Jeffrey Steele) leads American soldiers of fortune in a military takeover of Nicaragua in 1852. This adventurous drama of one of the first U.S. interventions in Central America will be performed Friday, April 18, at 8 p.m. at the Park Avenue Congregational Church. For ticket information or reservations, call 641-2119.

Art. Adv. What's Up?

Thursday, April 17-Wednesday, April 23, 19

What Now?

(From previous page)

Friday
April 18

Drama On Nicaragua

ARLINGTON — April 18. The Nation Thief, a drama of American William Walker's takeover of Nicaragua in 1852, begins at 8 p.m. at Park Ave. Congregational Church. Tickets are $3-$6. Call 641-2119.

Quilt Show And Sale

ARLINGTON — April 18, 19. The Quilter's Connection is holding its 9th Annual Quilt and Sale at the First Parish Unitarian Universalist Church, 630 Massachusetts ave. Show hours are Friday, 10 a.m. to 9 p.m.; Saturday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Access for handicapped. Donations $2. Write SASE Stephanie Blout, 79 Robbins Rd., Lexington, 02173.

The Nation Thief

ARLINGTON — April 18. The Nation Thief, a play dramatizing the exploits of American adventurer William Walker will be presented at 8 p.m. at the Park Avenue Congregational Church. Ticket prices are $3 students, senior citizens and the unemployed; $6 in advance; $7 at the door; and $8 reserved seats. Call 641-2119.