

scapegoat immigrants, women, and oppressed people. Describes the dynamics of the economic system that make full employment more and more of an impossibility under capitalism.

17 pp., pocket size

25¢, ISBN: 0-89567-037-2.

People Need Steel; Steelworkers Need Jobs by Vince Copeland

Why are steel plants idle when steel bridges are rusting away, buses and trains are decrepit, and workers' skills are being wasted? A former steelworker urges the forging of a labor-community alliance to effectuate the takeover and operation of closed plants.

31 pp., 50¢.

Chrysler and the UAW by Sam Marcy

Written by a long-time workers' organizer, this pamphlet analyzes the crisis which hit the Chrysler workers in 1980-81 and offers concrete ways the union could have fought back. It takes up the role of the Loan Guarantee Board, how autoworkers can fight to protect their jobs, and how preparing industry-wide solidarity could bring back the strength of the UAW. 28 pp., pocket size

25¢, ISBN: 0-89567-047-X

SPECIAL OFFER

TITLE	REGULAR PRICE
Blast Furnace Brothers	$1.00
Battle of the Boycott	1.00
Till Every Battle's Won	1.00
Why Are People Out of Work	.25
People Need Steel	.50
Chrysler and the UAW	.25

SAVE $1.00

ALL SIX TITLES FOR ONLY $3.00

OTHER TOPICS

Welfare: Why Workers Need It; How Billionaires Get It by Elizabeth Ross

Who needs welfare? Millions of women, children, and men, too, as it gets harder and harder to find a job. But this assistance, never adequate, is being cut back while tax breaks and other forms of welfare for the rich are increasing. In this lively booklet Ross explains the need for a better welfare system.

36 pp., $1.50, ISBN: 0-89567-075-5.

What for the Future— Famine or Feast? by Elizabeth Ross

Food! Within this concise booklet is a wealth of information on a subject that is crucial to the well-being of humankind. This carefully documented exposition shows the role of the capitalist economic system in holding back food production and explains how the problem of feeding everyone can be solved through socialism.

51 pp., $1.50.

Oil Belongs to the People by Vince Copeland

A tremendous empire has been built on oil by a few super-rich corporations. Their stranglehold over this vital resource has led to an artificial fuel crisis and soaring prices. This popular pamphlet explains why oil, like air and water, should belong to everyone and what we can do to win control over it.

20 pp., pocket size

25¢, ISBN: 0-89567-034-8.