

Butch Cassidy Days

A week of western adventure

Try out some new activities — by land, air, and water

7 Days, $1195
(Single supplement: $300)
Jackson, Wyoming
July 19-26, 1997

Price includes:

- Luxury condo-style accommodations;
- Welcome reception and buffet dinner;
- Midweek dinner;
- Closing night dinner;
- 3 breakfasts;
- Your choice of activities on four days; options include rafting, hiking, biking, climbing, canoeing, horseback riding, and hot-air ballooning.

Does not include:

- Airfare to Jackson, Wyoming;
- Meals not listed here;
- Additional, optional activities beyond those included.

The outlaw Butch Cassidy is said to have holed up here in the shadow of the Grand Teton, and some of his loot may still be hidden nearby.

We'll live more stylishly, in deluxe condos with kitchen facilities that give you full freedom to sample the town's great restaurants occasionally, while eating in when you want to take it easy.

The rest of the week, kick back your heels and relax, or venture out independently with new friends. Or go out and look for that buried treasure.

- ★ Watch for moose, elk, beaver, and the occasional bald eagle, on a calm and scenic raft trip down the Snake River.
- ★ Spend the day canoeing, with time out for a lunch, a swim, and perhaps a short nap, as the Tetons tower overhead.
- ★ Bike along backcountry roads, past buffalo, wildflowers, and mountain streams.
- ★ Get your first climbing lesson, then climb up a rock wall that would have looked impossible just a few hours earlier.
- ★ Take a second look at all the sights, as you waft gently over the mountains and river in a hot air balloon.

Is this the trip for you? It's hard not to enjoy yourself in Teton country. Our wide choice of activities means anyone looking for an active vacation can have a week to remember.

