

FREE PANDA PIN

When you join World Wildlife Fund...

(Actual size 11/16th of an inch)

This timeless symbol of concern for endangered wildlife is yours when you become a member of World Wildlife Fund.

Fashioned in fine black and white enamel, this exquisite pin has been commissioned in a special limited edition exclusively for members of World Wildlife Fund.

The panda, chosen as the World Wildlife Fund emblem over 20 years ago, has become the symbol of endangered species everywhere.

How fitting that this world renowned symbol should distinguish you as a leader in the work to save endangered species!

To receive your free pin—use the enclosed membership application. If the application form is lost or not handy, send $15 or more with your name and address along with this flyer to:
