

The True Vine

According to this and other scriptures the Anglo-Saxon people will soon call upon God to deliver them from both their external and internal enemies. The sooner we realize that God and God alone can deliver us the better it will be.

The 37th chapter of Ezekiel, which records the parable of the valley full of dry bones and the parable of the two sticks, very clearly teaches that the whole house of Israel, that is the Anglo-Saxons, are to come forth out of bondage and darkness. Verses 13 and 14 state, "And ye shall know that I am the Lord, when I have opened your graves (graves symbolize bondage and darkness, corruption and misery), O my people, and brought you up out of your graves, And shall put my spirit in you and ye shall live . . ." Remember this parable was not addressed to individuals, saved or unsaved. It was spoken to the whole house of Israel. It deals with the cleansing and purging which Almighty God has covenanted to accomplish in the nations now known as Christian nations.

In the parable of the two sticks recorded in Ezekiel 37:15-28 we find this same almost unbelievable truth. It says that when Israel and Judah (Germany) are united, and this is fast coming to pass, they shall not defile themselves any more with their idols (such as money and power politics), nor with their detestable things, that is things that are disgusting and filthy. God continues and says, "I will cleanse them; so shall they be my people, and I will be their God. They shall also walk in my judgment, and observe my statutes and do them." This marvelous chapter which would dispel all despair over present world conditions closes with these comforting words, "And the heathen shall know that I the Lord do sanctify Israel when my sanctuary shall be in the midst of them forever more."

God's purpose in delivering and cleansing the Anglo-Saxons at this time will be the same as it was when He delivered our forefathers at the Red Sea. In Psalm 106 we read, "Our fathers understood not thy wonders in Egypt; they . . . provoked him at the Red Sea. Nevertheless he saved them for his name's sake, that he might make his mighty power to be known."

Are you leaving your mark for eternity on those around you? It is not your preaching or teaching, your strength of will or power to influence, that will secure this. All depends on having your life full of God and His Power. And that again depends upon your living the truly Branch-like life of abiding - very close and unbroken fellowship with Christ.

It is the Branch that abides in Him that brings forth much fruit - fruit that will abide. It is because we so little live the true Branch life, because we so little lose ourselves in the Vine, abiding in Him entirely, that we feel so little constrained to much prayer, so little confident that we shall be heard, and so do not know how to use His name as the key of God's storehouse.

The power of direct access to the Father for men, the liberty of intercession, claiming and receiving blessing for them in faith, is the highest exercise of our union with Christ. Let all who would truly and fully be Branches give themselves to the work of intercession.

It is the one great work of Christ, the Vine in heaven, the source of power for all His work. Make it your one great work as Branch: it will be the power of all your work.

—Selected

"I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman. Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit. Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you. Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me. I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing" (John 15:1-5)
