

The Foundation for Economic Education was founded in 1946 to combat the prevailing trend toward state intervention in human affairs. FEE's method is to study and explain the alternative to intervention: the free market, private property, limited government concepts and the moral and spiritual principles on which this country was founded. This catalogue is a report of progress in developing, in modern American idiom, a consistent literature of freedom.

The list, of course, by no means includes all the books worth studying in the field, but it will suggest areas of study. Nor has every book listed here been finely combed for consistency in every last detail. Indeed, any serious student will want to read any book with care and discrimination, gleaning from it such truth as he can find, and rejecting that which to him seems false or misleading.

All items in this list, including those of other publishers, are available through the Foundation.

Quantity discounts apply on single title or combination orders of FEE publications as marked (*):

5 copies 10%
10 copies 20%
25 copies 25%
100 copies 33 $\frac{1}{3}$ %

A price discount of 20% applies on any order of $50.00 or more of the books of outside publishers that are listed in this catalogue.

Prices in this list supersede previous quotations and are subject to change.

In addition to books, the Foundation also carries a number of pamphlets, reprints from The Freeman, and other releases, a list of which will be supplied on request.

The Freeman

This digest-size, 64-page, monthly journal is now, and has been since January 1956, the principal outlet for Foundation releases. Anyone may receive it regularly upon written request. An annual subscription-donation of $5.00 or more is a suggestion, not a requirement.

Current issues, 3 for $1.00; 10 for $2.50; 25 copies or more, 20¢ each. Inquire for special quantity rates on available back issues, useful for meetings and discussion groups.

- * Handsome, blue, 12-rod Leatherlex Freeman binders, $2.50 each.
- * Clothbound volumes of The Freeman are available for 1965 and subsequent years at $5.00 for each year. For prior years, see Essays on Liberty, below.

For microfilm copies of current or past issues of The Freeman, address inquiries to Xerox University Microfilms, 300 N. Zeeb Road, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48106.

* Essays on Liberty

Earlier Foundation releases, including the outstanding Freeman articles through 1964 and not otherwise available in book form, have been assembled in 12 bound volumes of Essays on Liberty, each 448-page volume separately indexed, plus a cumulative index for all volumes by subject, author, and title. The subjects include government, taxes, inflation, money, monopoly, price controls, subsidies, security, competition, and other topics of current importance analyzed by accomplished exponents, past and present, of the libertarian philosophy. This is a vital shelf of the literature of liberty, applied to current problems, in terms familiar to the layman.

Any volume, single copy, $2.00 paper, $3.00 cloth. Cumulative index, $1.00.
