

Edna
Epperson
BRINKMAN
(Publisher)

John W.
BURGESS

The Constitution of the United States

A large-type, spiral-bound copy of the United States Constitution and amendments.

51 pages. 1962. $1.00 paper

 Recent Changes in American Constitutional Theory

The development of constitutional law from 1898 to 1918. First published in 1923 by Columbia University Press; now available through FEE.

115 pages. 1923. $1.00 paper

The Roots of Capitalism

An incisive view of the ideas underlying our free economy, by the noted critic, journalist, and editor.

222 pages, indexed. D. Van Nostrand, 1959.
$5.50 cloth

The Rise and Fall of Society

An investigation of the role played by man's economic activities in shaping the societies in which he has lived and reasons why the economic order occasionally bogs down.

168 pages. Devin-Adair, 1959. $3.95 cloth

Material Human Progress

A businessman's testimony for the competition to be found only in a free market.

107 pages. Stratford Press, 1954. $2.00 cloth

The Tariff Idea

A logical refutation of protectionism and a positive presentation of the case for free trade.

80 pages. 1953. $1.00 paper

In Defense of Property

A history of private property, showing its vital relationship to freedom.

273 pages, indexed. Regnery, 1963. $6.50 cloth

The Federalist: A Classic on Federalism and Free Government

The first book-length examination of The Federalist concepts of free government under the American Constitution with its protective devices of all sorts against "democratic despotism."

378 pages, indexed. Johns Hopkins Press, 1961.
$6.50 cloth

Understanding Our Free Economy

A valuable textbook for high school economics as well as general public use.

589 pages, indexed. D. Van Nostrand, Revised, 1962
$5.40 cloth
Teacher's Guide, 66 pages. $1.00

Prosperity Through Freedom

The noted economic columnist examines current affairs in the light of free market standards and suggests ways to recover lost liberty.

278 pages, indexed. Regnery, 1961. $3.95 cloth

States, Contracts and Progress: Dynamics of International Wealth

To enjoy the advantages of capitalism, underdeveloped nations must learn to respect contracts and property rights.

128 pages. Oceana, 1960. $1.50 paper, $3.50 cloth

Ten Thousand Commandments

A popularly-written study of the antitrust laws and their effect. "This book is not for lawyers, but for people."

214 pages, indexed. Prentice-Hall, 1951. $3.50 cloth

The Peoples' Pottage

A collection of three essays, "The Revolution Was," "Ex America," and "The Rise of Empire," dramatically describing the modern decline of freedom in America.

174 pages. Caxton, 1953. $3.00 cloth

The Christian History of the Constitution of the United States, with an Introduction by Felix Morley. Joseph Allan Montgomery, Editor.

A documentary volume, beautifully selected and bound. The first of a series.

436 pages, indexed. American Christian
Constitution Press, 1960. $7.50 cloth

Self-Government with Union

Volume II of the series above.

617 pages, indexed. American Christian
Constitution Press, 1962. $9.00 cloth

Fred R.
FAIRCHILD
& Thomas J.
SHELLY

Lawrence
FERTIG

Harold M.
FLEMING

Harold M.
FLEMING

Garet
GARRETT

Verna M.
HALL
(Compiler)

Verna M.
HALL
(Compiler)

John
CHAMBERLAIN

Frank
CHODOROV

Jacob Dolson
COX

W. M.
CURTISS

Gottfried
DIETZE

Gottfried
DIETZE