

What They're Saying About The ZOA...

"The ZOA has become the most important organization in the American Jewish community."

-Ma'ariv (leading Israeli daily)
January 27, 1995

"The plan to give unrestricted U.S. aid to the PLO is "opposed by the increasingly vocal and muscular Zionist Organization of America..."

Arab-American activist James Zogby,
Mideast Mirror, June 30, 1995

"The State Department apologizes, excuses and flat-out lies in their report about PLO compliance...The Zionist Organization of America refuses to go along and insists on publicizing [its] report detailing the record of PLO non-compliance...We can only applaud the courage of the ZOA for its refusal to acquiesce in this degrading spectacle."

-Hartford Jewish Ledger editorial, June 9, 1995

"Last week's State Department report on the PLO's compliance with the Oslo agreement is neither a factual evaluation nor a fair assessment...The Zionist Organization of America, headed by the tireless Morton Klein, has refuted the report point by point with exemplary accuracy."

-Jerusalem Post editorial, June 5, 1995

"Americans for Peace Now and the Arab American Institute have lobbied on behalf of [U.S. aid to the PLO]. The Zionist Organization of America has pushed equally hard against it, with a campaign that included a briefing for freshmen House Republicans last week by ZOA president Morton Klein."

-Jerusalem Post, June 23, 1995

"[There were] some 700 guests at the Zionist Organization of America's most successful dinner in 15 years on Sunday [December 11, 1994]...ZOA's annual dinner, a glittering affair at the Grand Hyatt [was] an impressive tribute to [Morton] Klein's achievements in reviving the organization...Since Klein's election as ZOA president, both friends and critics credit him as the catalyst for a revival of the historic organization that many had dismissed as headed for the graveyard. Membership has increased by 10 to 15 percent, according to ZOA officials. Many are moved in particular by Klein's readiness to call the PLO to account for failing to adhere to the terms of its agreement with Israel..."

-New York Jewish Week, December 16-22, 1994

"[The ZOA] has emerged as a sophisticated political infighter with a keen feel for the subtleties of U.S.-Israel relations and Washington lobbying."

-Reform Judaism, Spring 1995

"The ZOA...has become the most effective" of the American Jewish organizations that are critical of Yasir Arafat."

-The New Yorker, June 5, 1995

"[The ZOA's] views have made a profound impact on Jewish life in America."

-Heritage, November 4, 1994
