

CHALLENGE GRANT FROM THE W.K. KELLOGG FOUNDATION

Help us meet a challenge grant from the W.K. Kellogg Foundation — and create $1,000,000 in new scholarship money this year!

In the face of mounting scholarship needs for Native American students, the W.K. Kellogg Foundation of Battle Creek, Michigan has awarded the American Indian College Fund a $500,000 challenge grant for scholarships.

Before the grant can be received, the American Indian College Fund must match it, dollar for dollar, through contributions of new scholarship monies from people like you. If enough caring people respond, we can create $1,000,000 in new scholarship monies this year.

Will you add an additional $10 or more to your gift today — over and above the contribution that you planned to give — to help the College Fund match the Kellogg grant and send at least one thousand more students to college this school year?

If you can be so generous, please remove the panel below and include it with your gift. Thank you! (And for 10 more good reasons to support the American Indian College Fund, please see the reverse side of this card.)

(separate and include with accompanying reply form and envelope)