

SUMMER SESSION

University of Hawaii at Manoa
P.O. Box 11450, Dept. I
Honolulu, HI 96828-0450

The Fourth Pacific Peace Seminar

The University of Hawaii at Manoa is the main campus of the University, located in the suburbs of Honolulu. It is the site of the U.H. Institute for Peace, Program on Conflict Resolution, and School of Hawaiian, Asian and Pacific Studies. It offers other related courses and institutes as part of the summer session. The East-West Center is located on the campus of the University.

Housing: available on campus (dorms) and off campus (Waikiki hotels nearby and occasional bed and breakfasts).

Air Transportation to Summer Session:

Summer Session students are free to make their own travel arrangements to Honolulu. United Airlines is offering Summer Session students from the continental U.S. special discounts off the regular coach fares (with no restrictions) as well as discounts off promotional airfares (that have some restrictions). Travel must begin and end between May 12 and August 16, 1989. Call United Airlines' toll-free number 1-800-521-4041, and provide the United Airlines Tour Code Number 406LS for UH SUMMER.

Payment may be made to:

United Airlines,
181 S. Hotel St.,
Honolulu, HI 96813
Attn: UH SUMMER

Fees: (3-credit courses)

Hawaii resident: $50/hr. & $35 fee
Non-resident: $100/hr. & $35 fee
Non-credit: $335

$35 Institute fee due by June 1.

($50 after June 1). Some partial scholarships may be available.