

NOW, FOR THE FIRST TIME, TWO OF THE WORLD'S MOST RESPECTED AUTHORITIES ON THE MIDDLE EAST ARE WORKING TOGETHER—ON 'ZIONIST WATCH' . . .

VICTOR MARCHETTI's distinguished career has included service in the CIA under four U.S. presidents, and extensive travel in the Middle East. His best-selling book, The CIA and the Cult of Intelligence, received worldwide acclaim. A respected authority on military matters, his valuable contacts on all sides of the Middle Eastern situation have enhanced his reputation as a noted expert in the field of international relations. Mr. Marchetti holds a degree in Russian studies from Penn State University, and served as a U.S. military intelligence officer in Germany during the early 1950s. He has been interviewed by all major television networks and has been a guest on "60 Minutes," "Merv Griffin" and the "Phil Donahue Show." Mr. Marchetti lives with his family in Oakton, Virginia.

MARK LANE has never hesitated to take issue with controversial subjects, and enjoys a well-earned reputation as a successful attorney, thorough researcher and prolific writer. His multifaceted career has been partially chronicled in his eight books, including Rush to Judgment, the number one best-selling book in 23 countries, including the U.S. His international stature has enabled Mr. Lane to personally meet with PLO leaders as well as with members of the Knesset (the Israeli parliament) and other Middle Eastern forces. His service to America began at the age of 18, when he served in Army intelligence in World War II. Since that time, he has served in the New York state legislature and as a professor at a leading American law school. In addition to his books, he is also the screen-writer of three films.
