AS A Student of Liberty

► Is your new name plate — as imprinted on the above flap—correct in every way?

FEE holds liberty, next to life itself, as the most precious of human endowments, and we are dedicated to preserve and extend it.

Having signified your interest, you will receive THE FREEMAN, our monthly journal of ideas on liberty as well as other Foundation publications.

Attached is a sampling of some of our earlier releases, to further acquaint you with our thinking and to let you know of the availability of such studies. Perhaps you'd like to share them with friends who want to improve their understanding of the freedom philosophy.

The outstanding selections from all our releases, 1946 to date, appear in 8 volumes of ESSAYS ON LIBERTY, about 448 pages each, thoroughly indexed—a growing shelf of the literature of liberty, applied to current problems, in terms familiar to the layman. The set sells for $13.00 paper-backed or $19.00 in cloth (single copies $2.00 and $3.00 respectively).

Or, if you'd like a look first, we'll send Volume II, paper-backed, for $1.00.

Send to the above address:

- ☐ ESSAYS ON LIBERTY, Vol. II paper $1.00
- ☐ ESSAYS ON LIBERTY (eight volumes), cloth $19.00
