

For more information

The Gay Gene: Going, Going...Gone

by Yvette C. Schneider

The refrain "I was born gay" is heard more and more throughout our society. From gay activists to liberal media, as well as politicians, school teachers, and even neighbors down the road, America is taking on the notion of a gay gene. In this latest FRC Insight paper, Yvette Schneider sets the record straight (in clear, everyday language) by explaining the biased studies from which this "gay gene" notion derives. Order your free copy today so you can effectively relate the truth to others as you come to know scientifically why there is no "gay gene."

Complimentary

FRC Book Covers

Back for another school year, these book covers are sweeping the country. Kids everywhere are taking a bold yet peaceful stand to proclaim moral principle in our nation's schools. There are three different sets to choose from: 1) FRC's classic black and brown Ten Commandment covers, 2) the Love Thy Neighbor covers with Jesus' commandments from Matthew 22:37-39, and 3) a set of Ten Commandment covers in an assortment of colors and designs.

See order form on the front side of this card for quantity and pricing.