

IN THIS ARTICLE I want to trace with you this great "a nation" as promised and as prophesied in the Old Scriptures. Prophecy clearly states that this nation would come into being in the period known as "the last days."

Before I do this, however, let me give you a little parable which I think will be helpful.

Let us say, for instance, that you are commissioned to carry a message to a certain man in a camp of one hundred men. You have not been given the name of this man, but you have been told that he is seven feet tall, that he has every appearance of being a wealthy man, that he is generous and has a pleasant, good natured personality. Also you are told that he is the only man in the camp who is seven feet tall; all the other men are six feet and under.
