

Dear Sirs,

I have made the decision not to buy products from companies that teach and promote anti-Christian bigotry.

I ask that, out of respect to millions of Christians in this country, you stop sponsoring programs which ridicule and demean Christians and Christianity. I hope you will honor this request. However, if TV's anti-Christian bigotry does not end, and if the American Family Association calls for a boycott of your company because you help sponsor anti-Christian bigotry, I will join them in helping promote the boycott.

Sincerely, _____

DETACH HERE

Dear Sirs,

I have made the decision not to buy products from companies that teach and promote anti-Christian bigotry.

I ask that, out of respect to millions of Christians in this country, you stop sponsoring programs which ridicule and demean Christians and Christianity. I hope you will honor this request. However, if TV's anti-Christian bigotry does not end, and if the American Family Association calls for a boycott of your company because you help sponsor anti-Christian bigotry, I will join them in helping promote the boycott.

Sincerely, _____

DETACH HERE