

Begin's Bloodsoaked Past...

Begin has never made any effort to conceal his past. All of the crimes listed below are a matter of public record.

1913 — Menachem Begin born in Brest-Litovsk, Poland (now U.S.S.R.).

1939 — Flees to Soviet Union. Serves in Polish unit of the Red Army.

1942 — Soviets, for unexplained reasons of their own, allow Begin to leave for Palestine, where he joins the British army for rear-echelon duties.

1944 — Deserts the British army and joins the Zionist terrorist group called Irgun Zvai Leumi, which he soon heads. Plans and executes the follow atrocities, among others:

1946 — April 25: Murders several sleeping British soldiers in a military car-park in Tel Aviv.
July 22: The King David Hotel is dynamited. Some 97 nurses, soldiers and Arab civilians are killed, and over 100 are maimed or seriously injured; many are crippled or blinded.
December: Kidnaps and tortures three British sergeants.

1947 — March 1: Plants bomb in officers club in Jerusalem. Ten killed.

April 18: Bombs army hospital.

April 20: Bombs Red Cross hospital.

July 12: Kidnaps and torture-murders by slow strangulation with wire two 19-year old British soldiers (Mervyn Paice and Clifford Martin). Their bodies are then booby-trapped.

September 26: Guns down four police officers during the robbery of Barclay's Bank in Tel Aviv.

1948 — February: Murders three wounded police officers in their hospital beds in Jerusalem.

April 10: The Deir Yassin Massacre. Begin organizes a raid on the Arab village of Deir Yassin. Some 254 peaceful, unarmed villagers are murdered in an act of deliberate terror aimed at driving Palestinian Arabs out of their homeland. The victims include 25 pregnant women with their bellies ripped open, 52 mothers with young children and 60 other women and girls. The Red Cross finds 150 of the bodies stuffed down a well.

1977 — Menachem Begin is appointed Prime Minister of Israel and is invited by President Jimmy Carter to the White House as an honored guest.

1982 — At the height of an unprovoked Israeli invasion of Lebanon, Begin is again received as an honored guest at the White House, this time by President Ronald Reagan. The Israeli holocaust in Lebanon, which Begin ordered, resulted in 20,000 civilian deaths and 60,000 serious injuries, as well as leaving 750,000 people homeless.

But perhaps it is only fitting that this monster should become prime minister of a country which, among other atrocities, uses Arab children for slave labor, has had its air force shoot down an unarmed Libyan commercial airliner (killing 109 civilians), and has attacked an unarmed American naval vessel (the U.S.S. Liberty) killing 34 American sailors and wounding 171 others.
