

WHAT YOU CAN DO (Ending the Arms Race Cont'd.)

Contact the Better World Society to obtain a free Organizer's Briefing Kit showing how to organize group viewing and other actions around the programs. Write us at Suite 1006, 1140 Connecticut Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036, or call us at (202) 331-3770.

- Host a house party to watch each of the programs and involve people who have not yet taken action.
- Get a tape of each of the programs to use in the ongoing work of your organization. Contact Better World to find out how.
- Publicize the series in your newsletter and action alert networks. Ask the national organizations you belong to to publicize the arms control series on their networks.
- Make copies of this notice and post it in your church, school, business, Rotary Club, library, and community center.
- Send a letter to the Editor of your local newspaper about the series, and urge the paper to run a story about the series (as well as any events your organization plans around the programs).
- Write your Representative and Senators in Washington to urge them to watch all of the programs in the series.
- Contact Women for a Meaningful Summit, 1201 16th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036 (202) 822-7483 to find out more about what women are doing to stop the nuclear arms race.
- Contact the Center for Defense Information, 1500 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20005 (202) 862-0700 to find out more about the common-sense case for a comprehensive test ban.
- Contact the Institute for Soviet-American Relations, 1608 New Hampshire Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20009 (202) 387-3034 to learn how citizen diplomats are helping to better East/West relations.
