

ON A BIKE

Biking Vacations

On a bike, you see the world differently. And no country offers such varied scenery, connected by quiet, well-paved roads, as France. See for yourself why so many people have declared their French bike trip with Alyson Adventures to be "the best vacation I ever had."

Big Loire, Little Loir

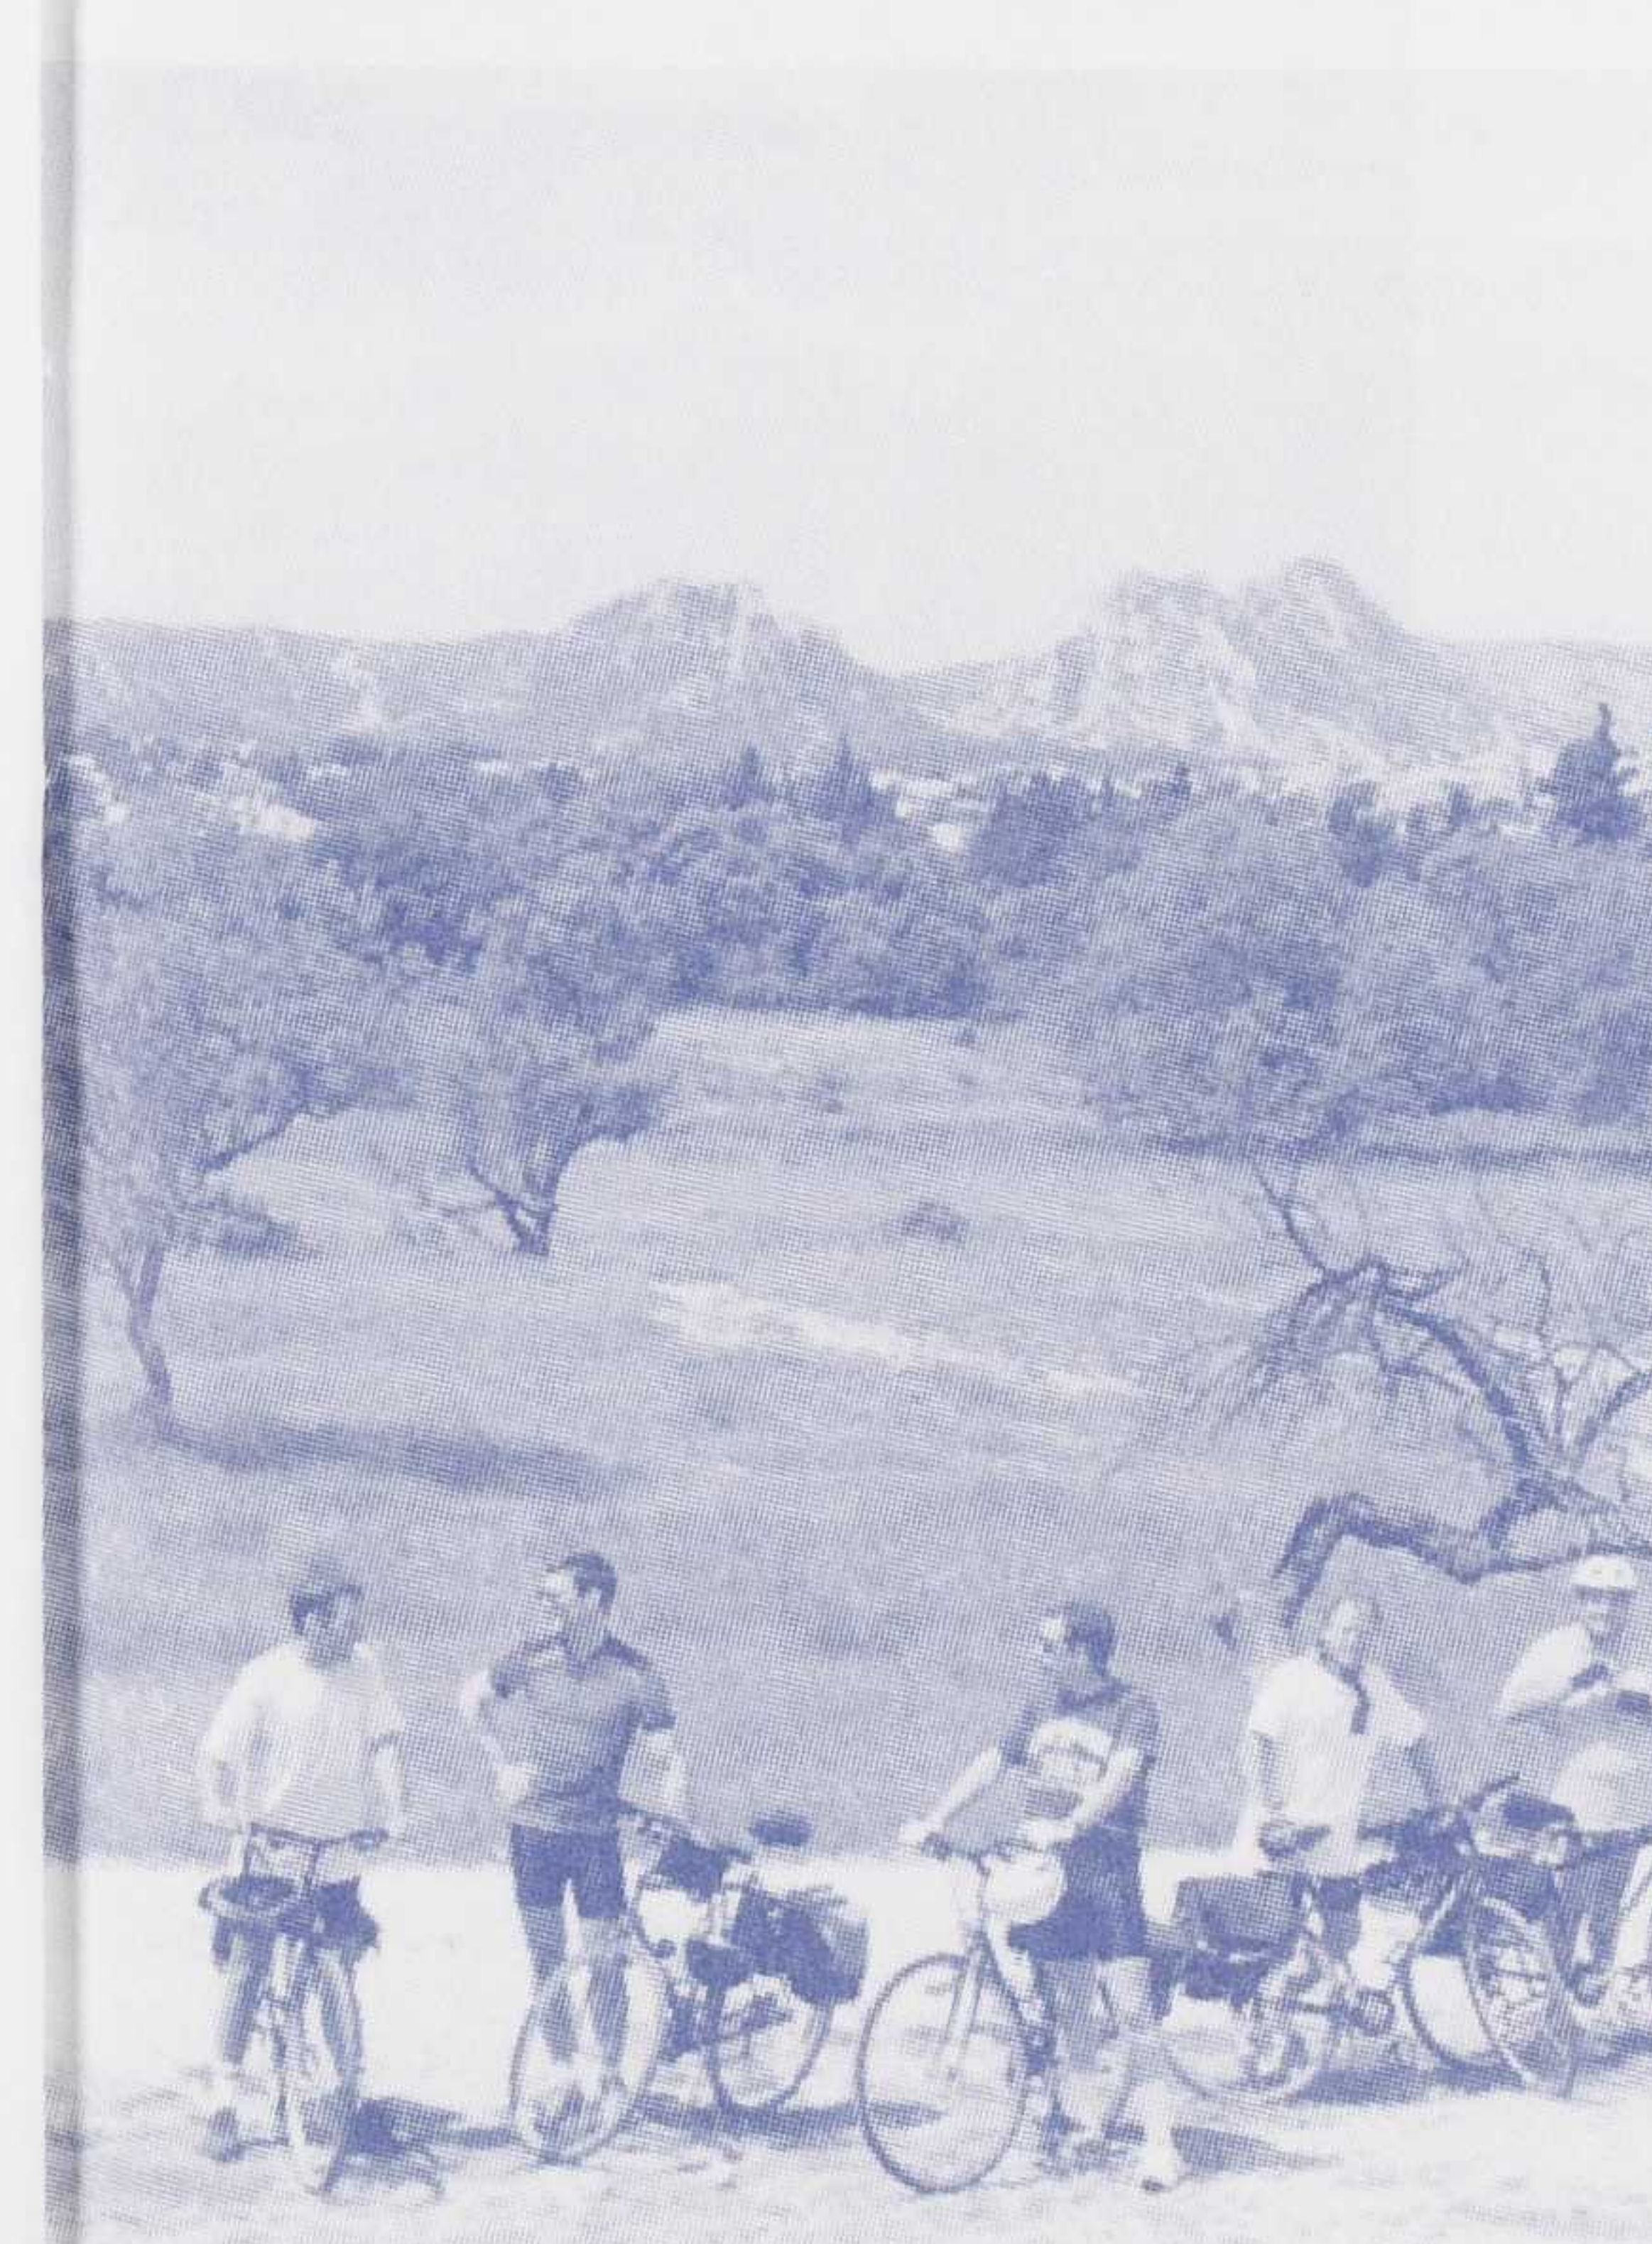

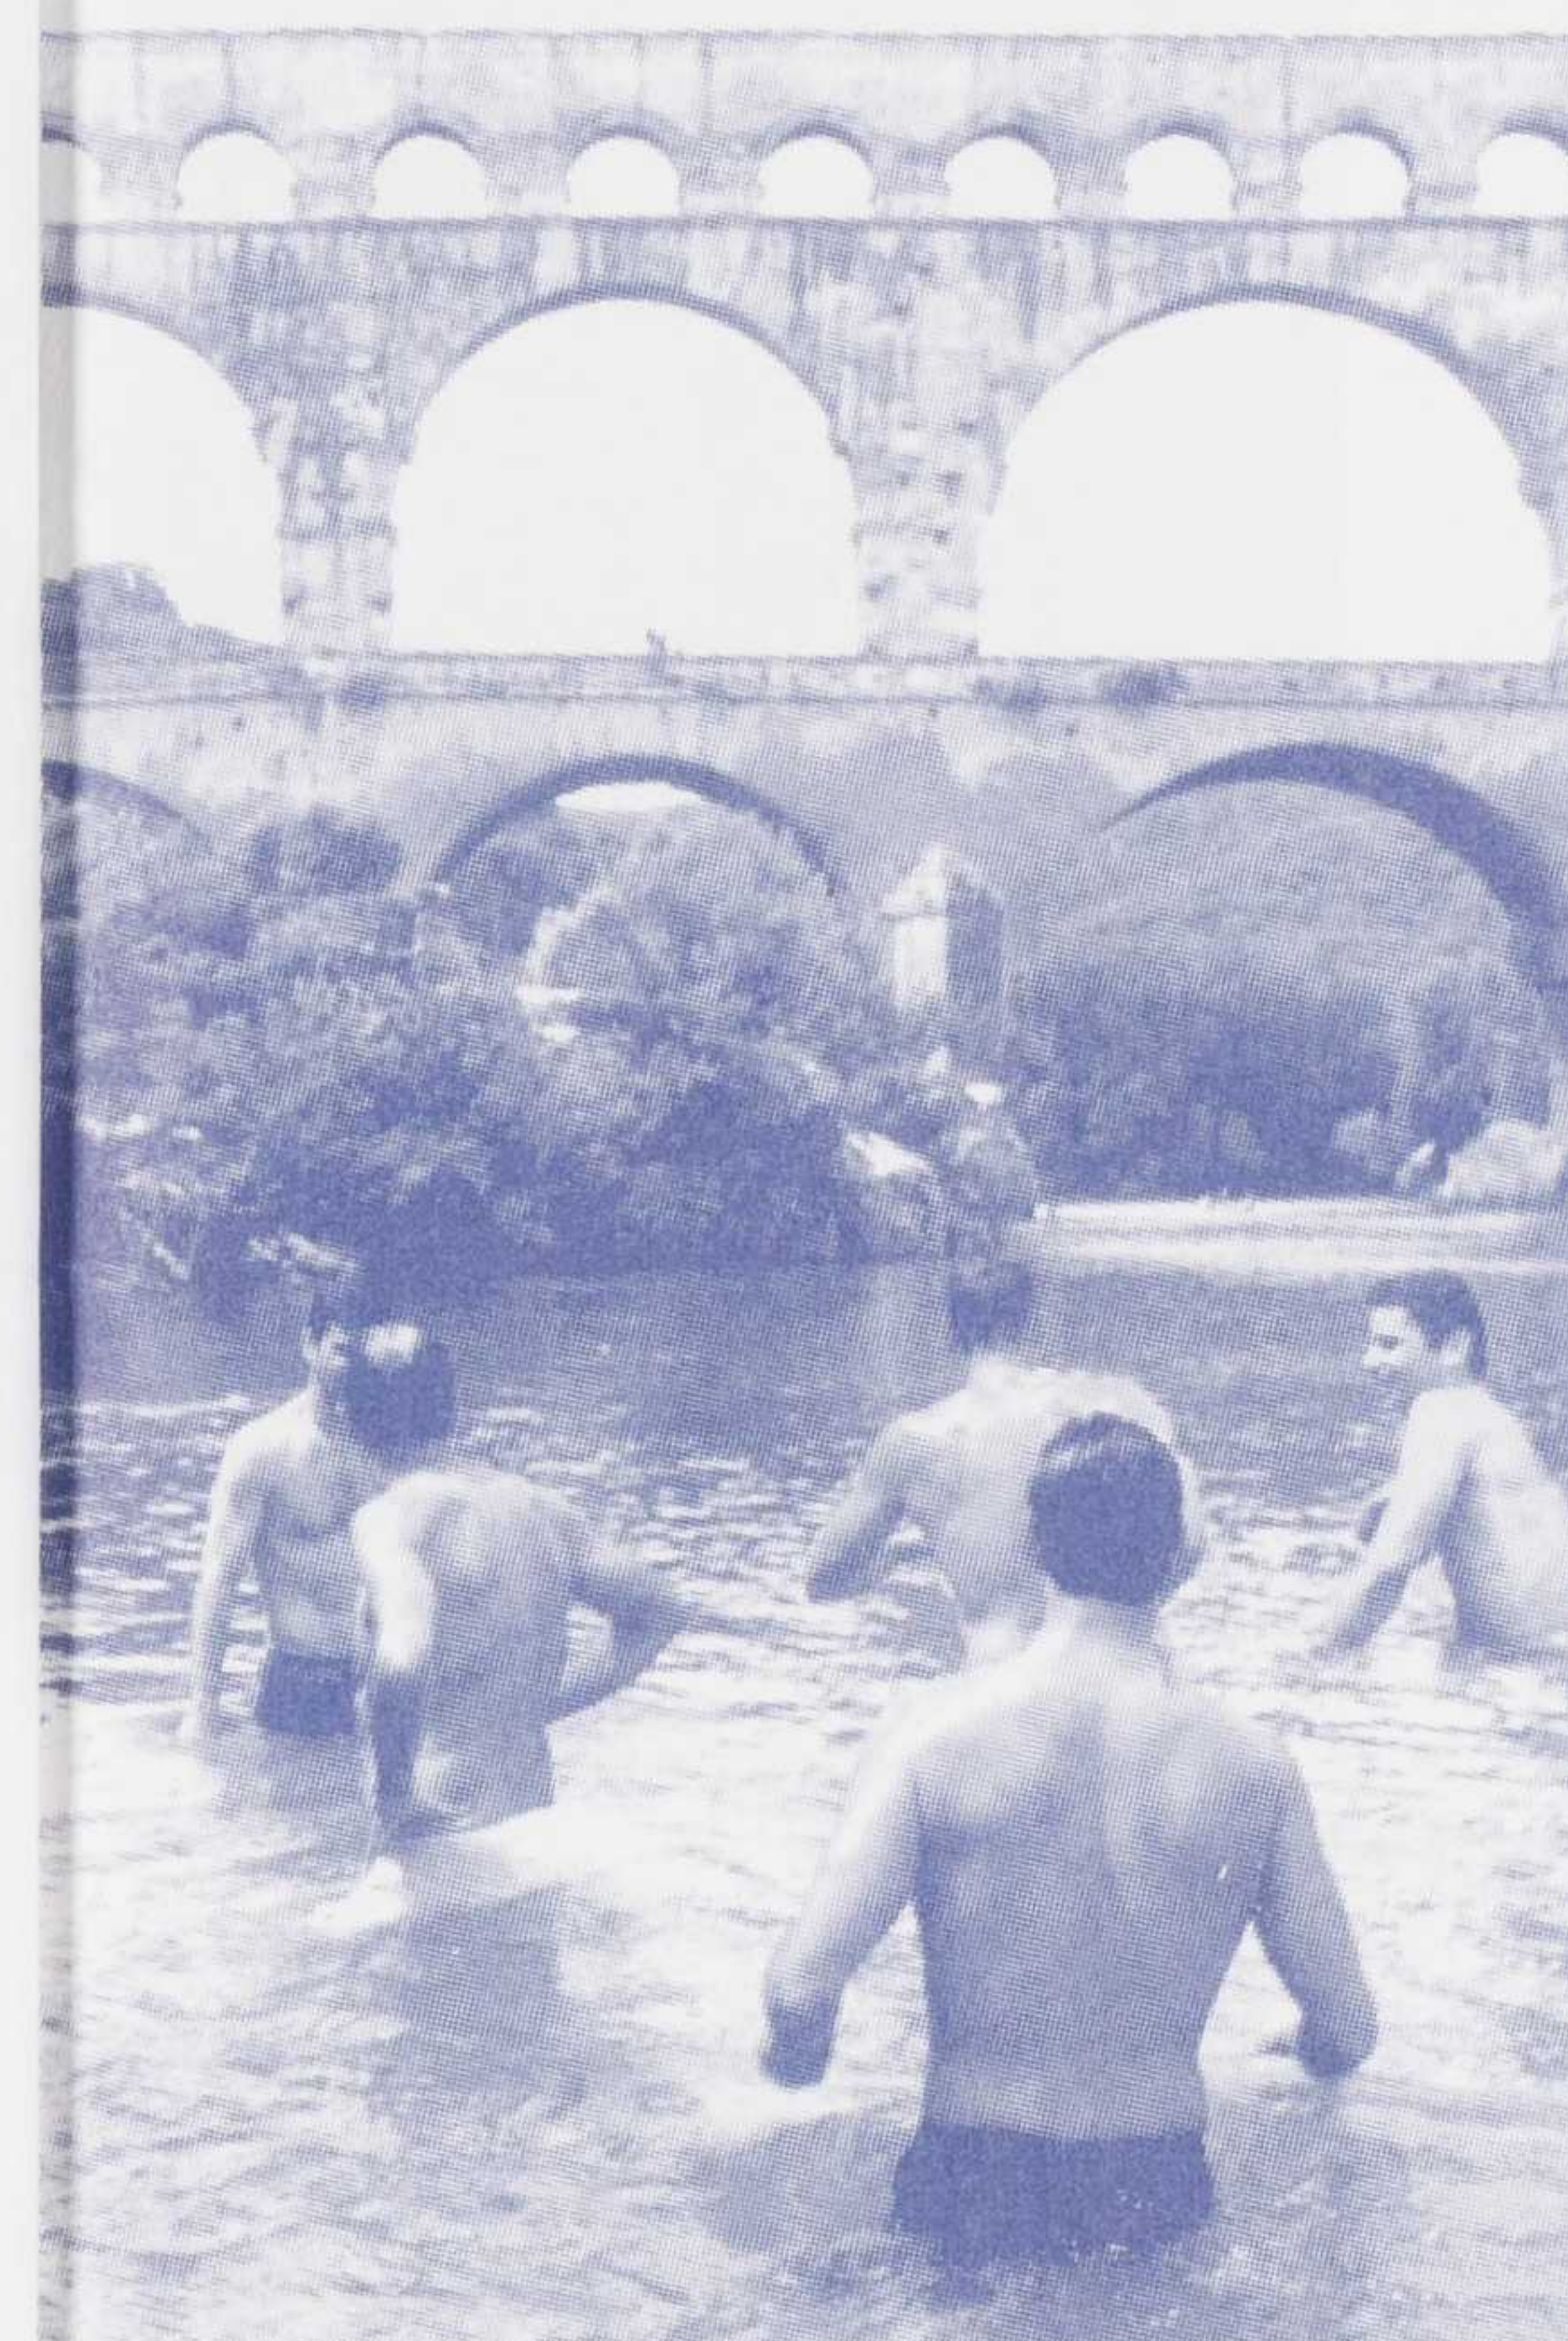

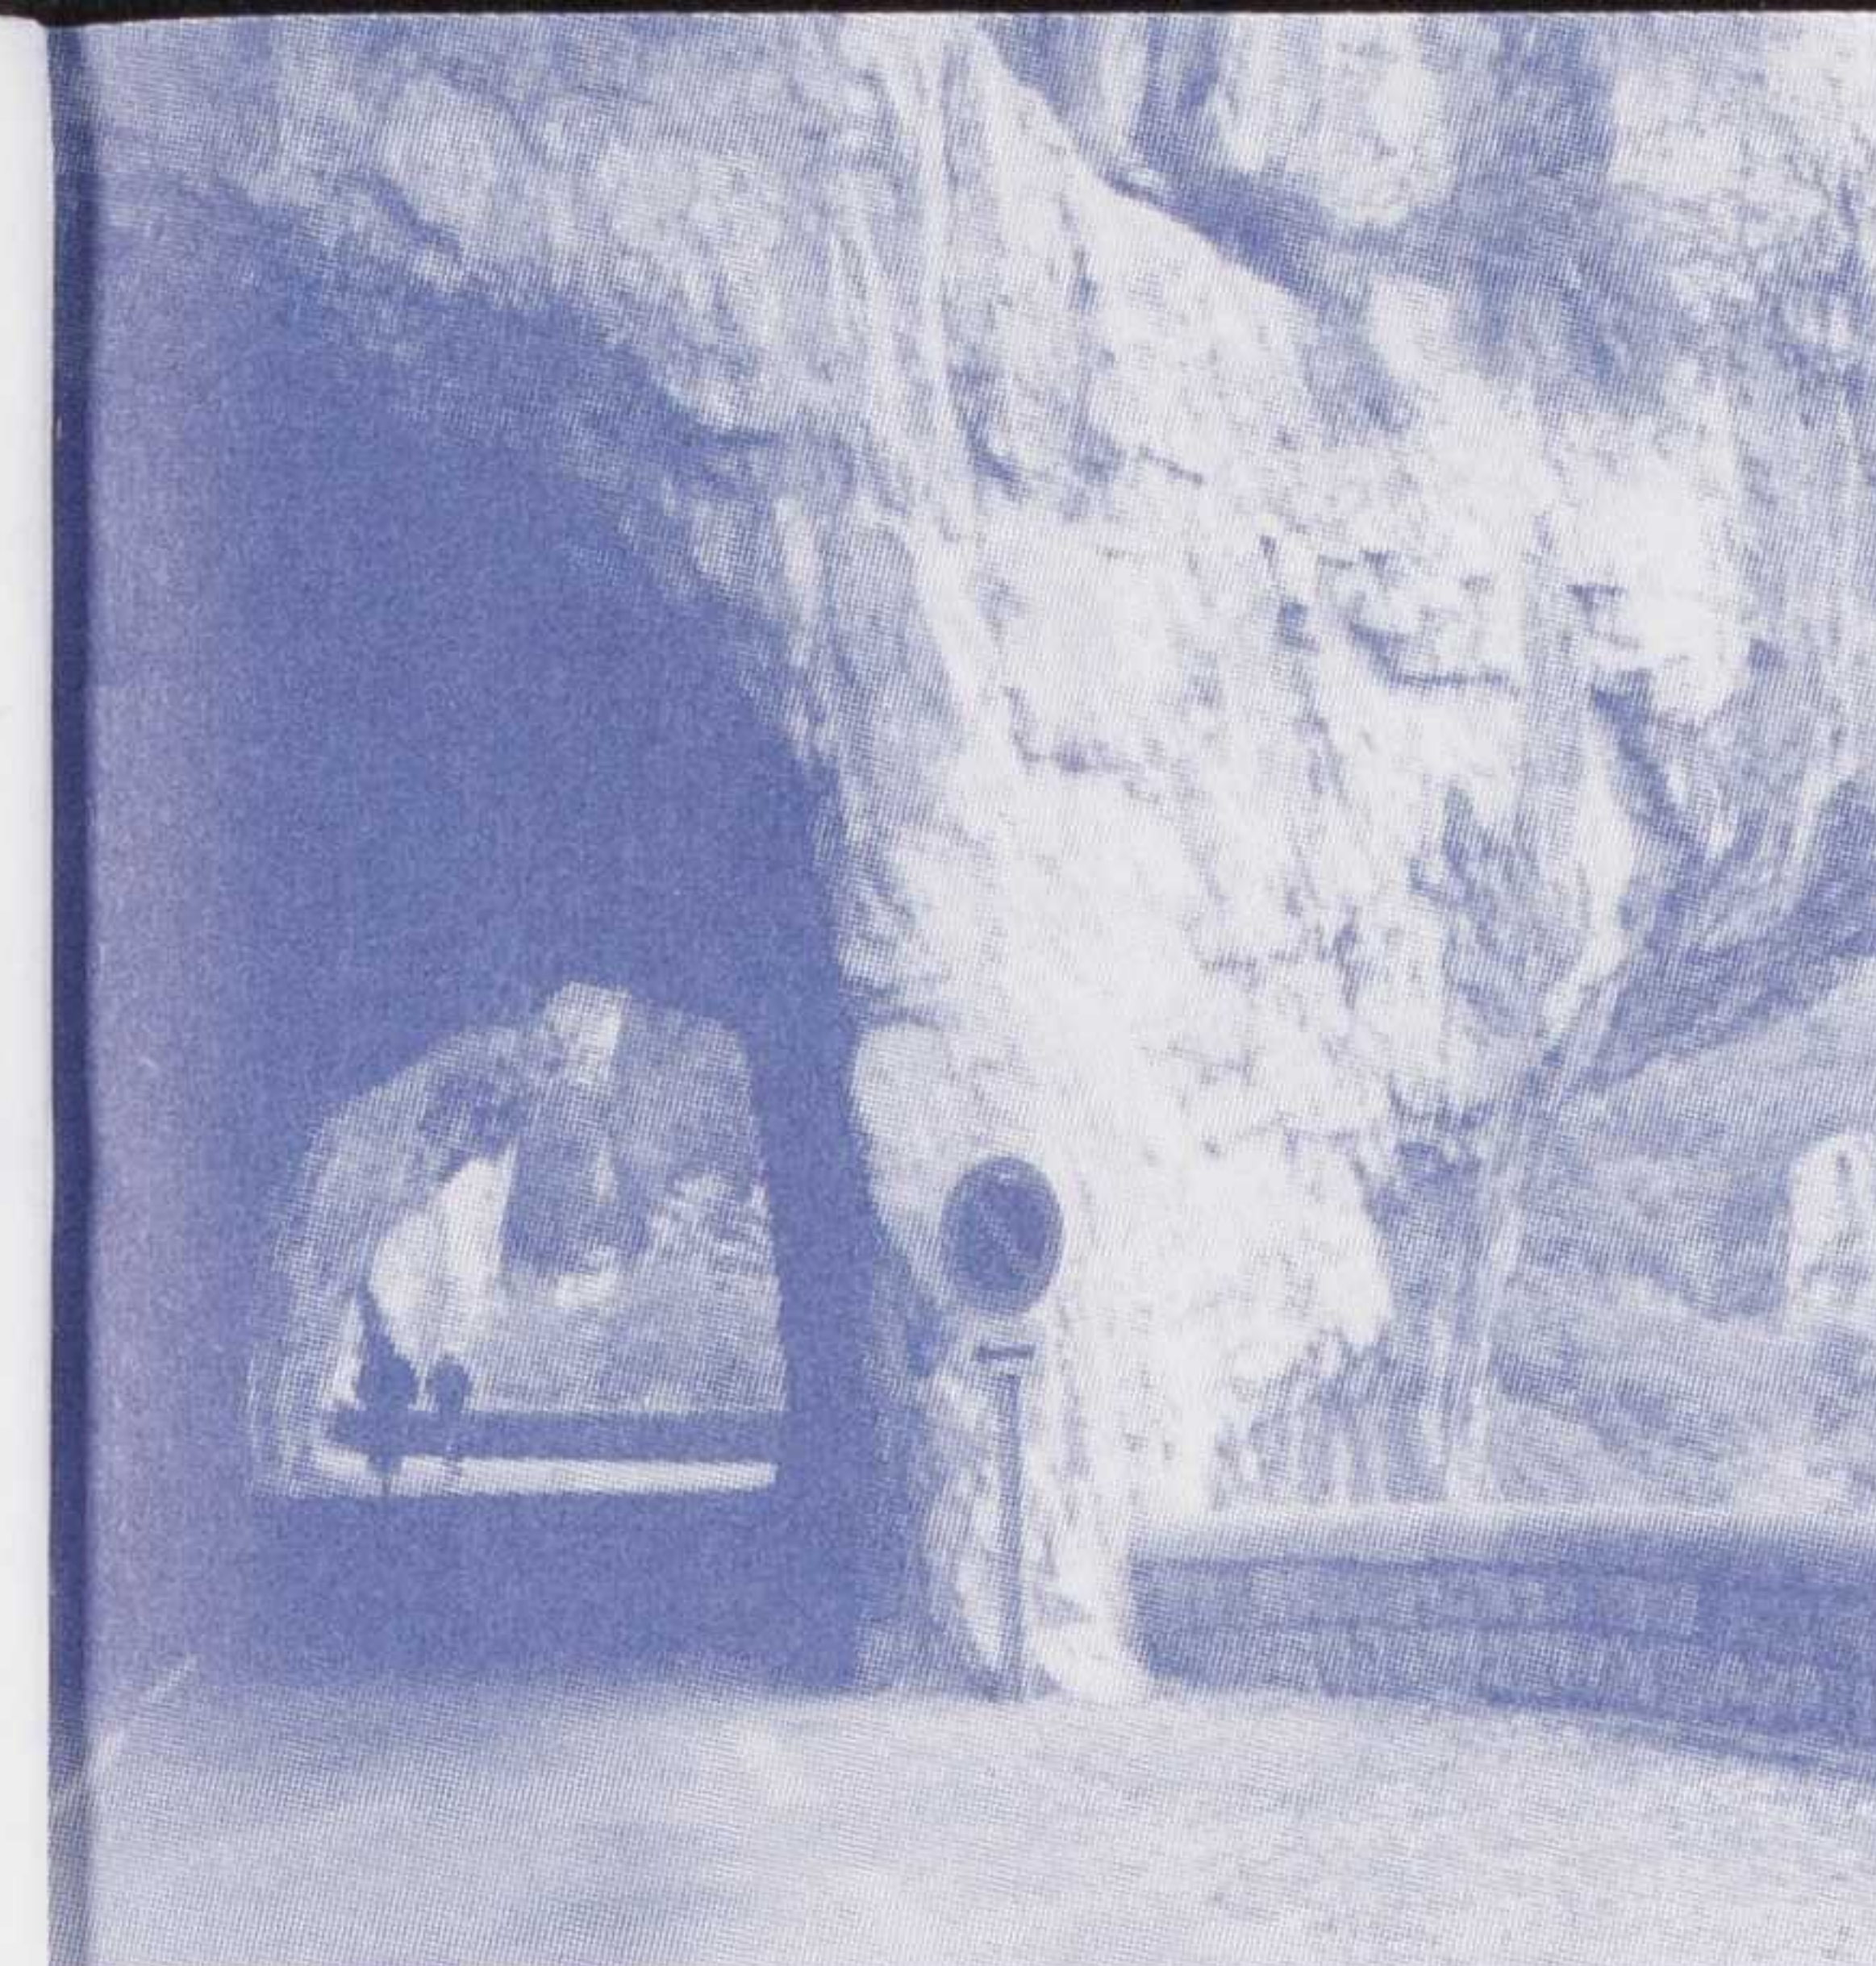

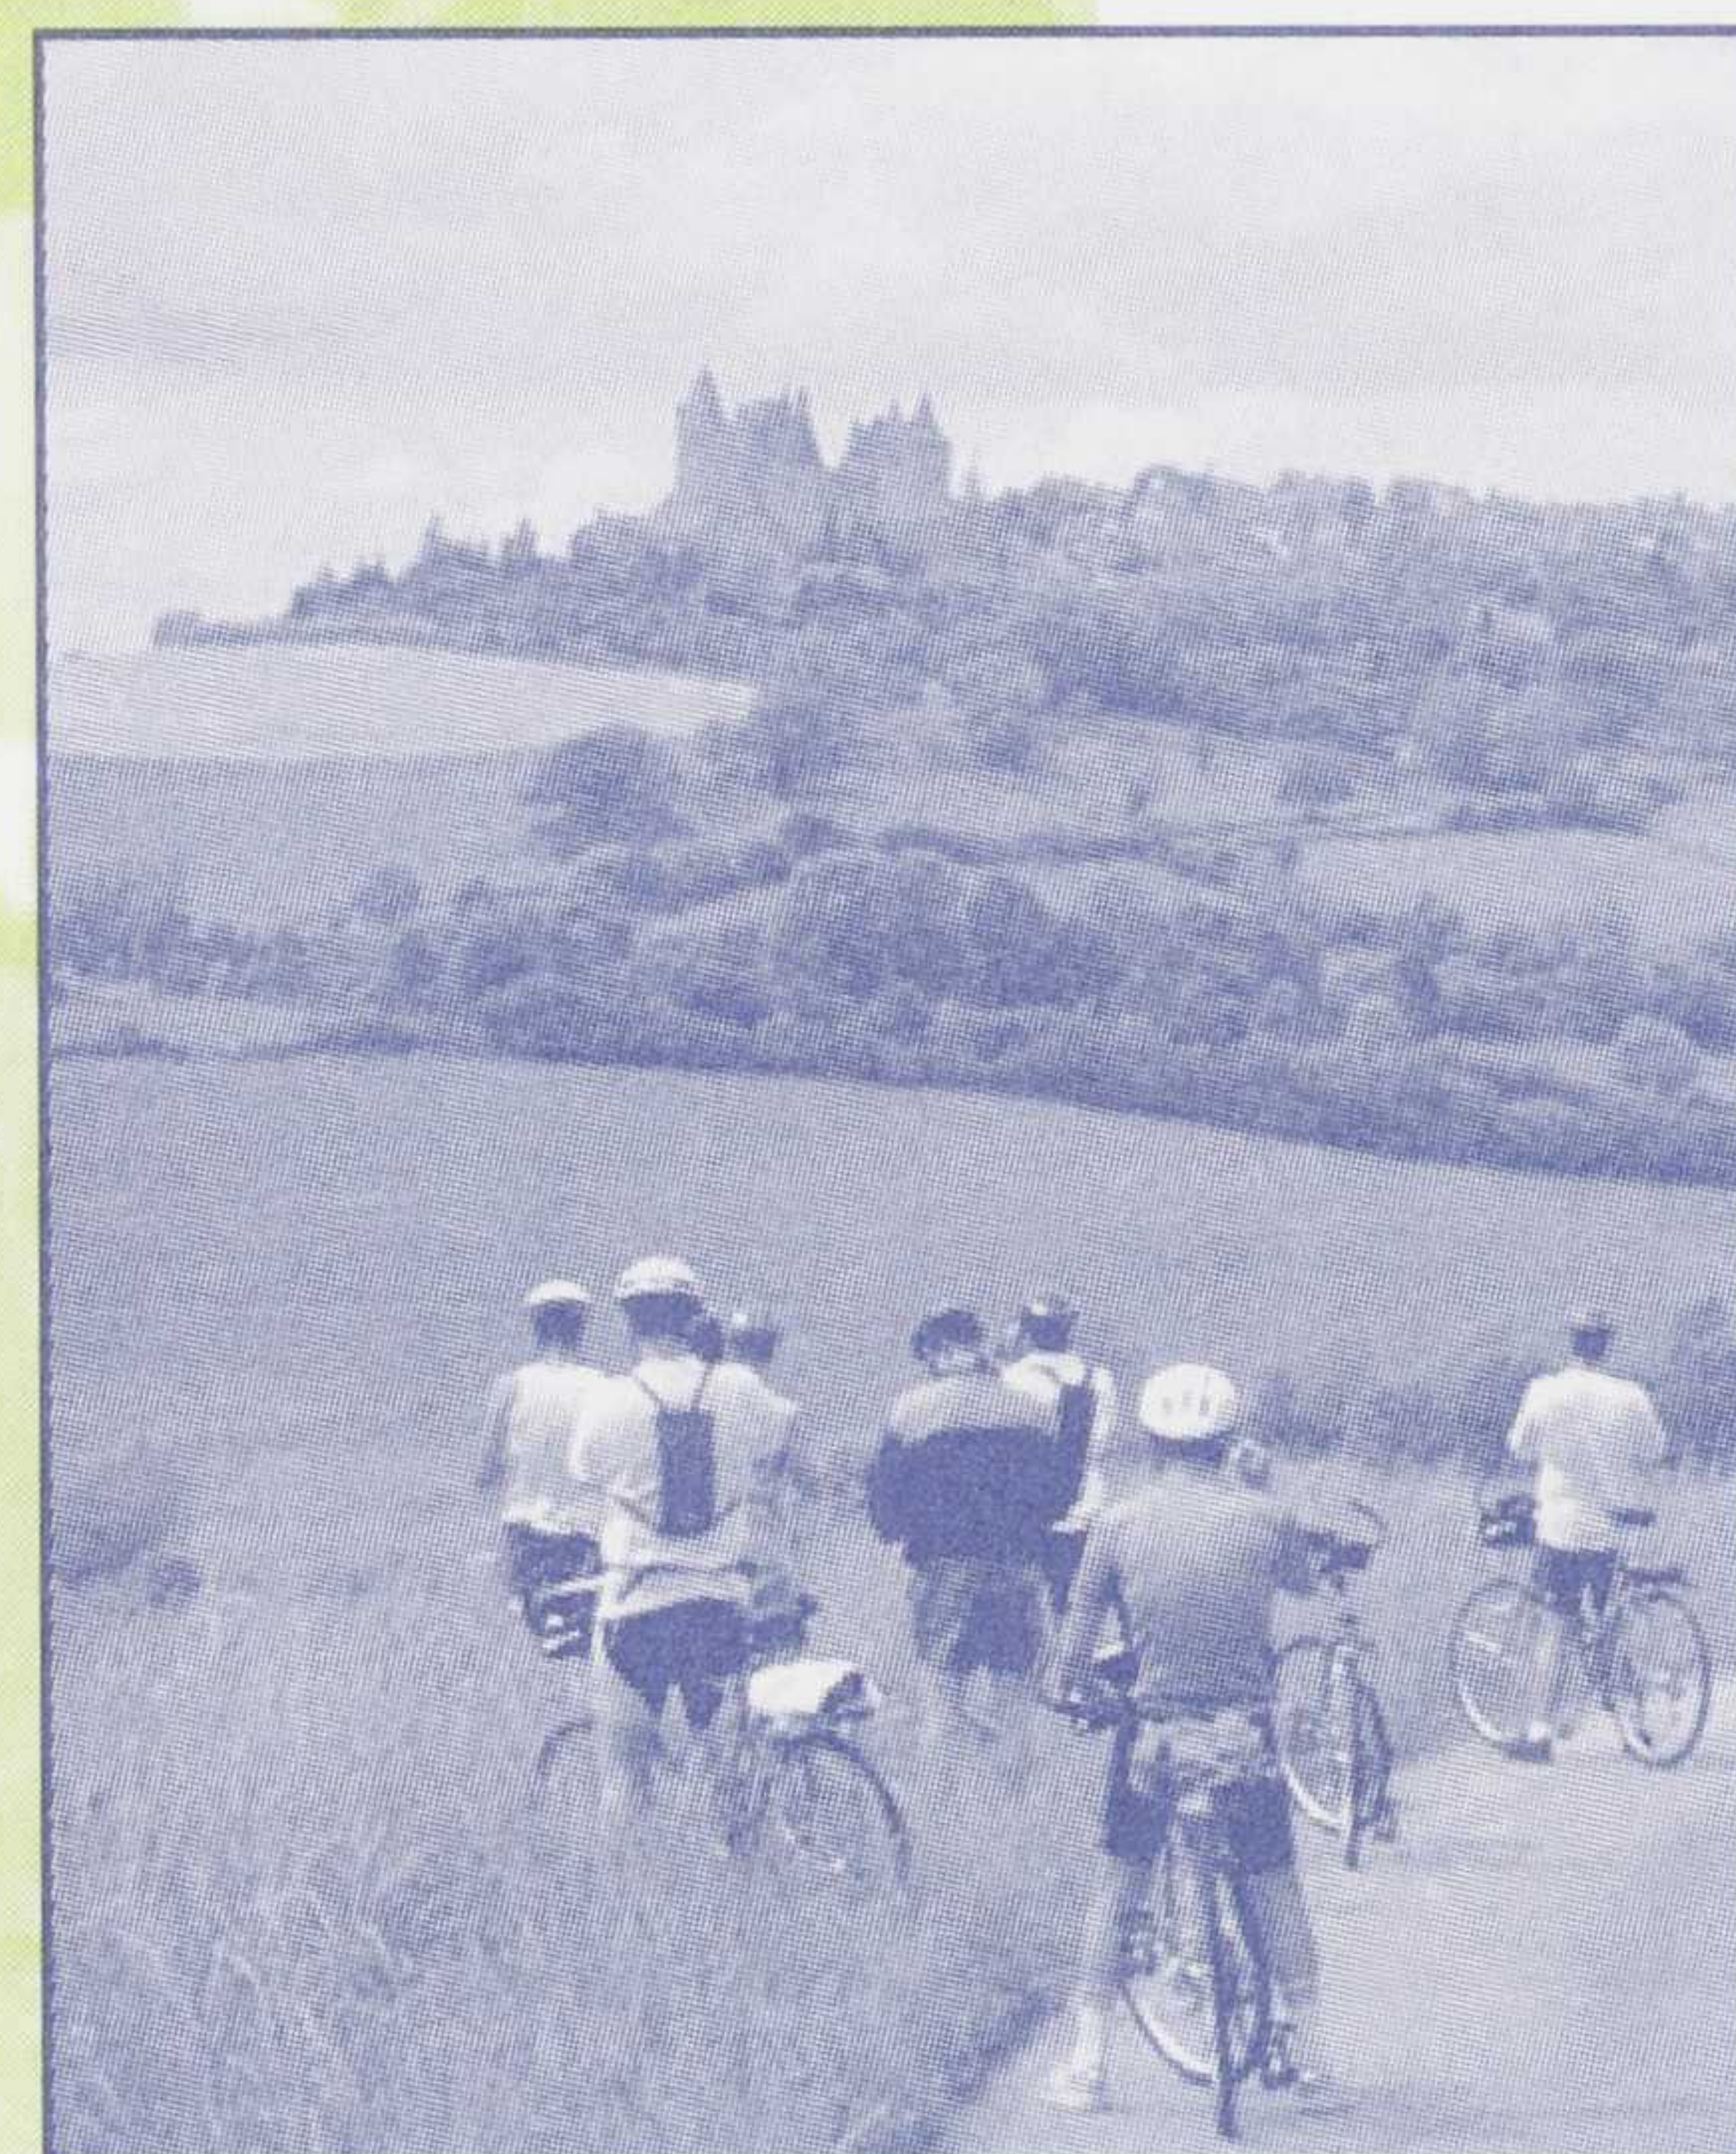

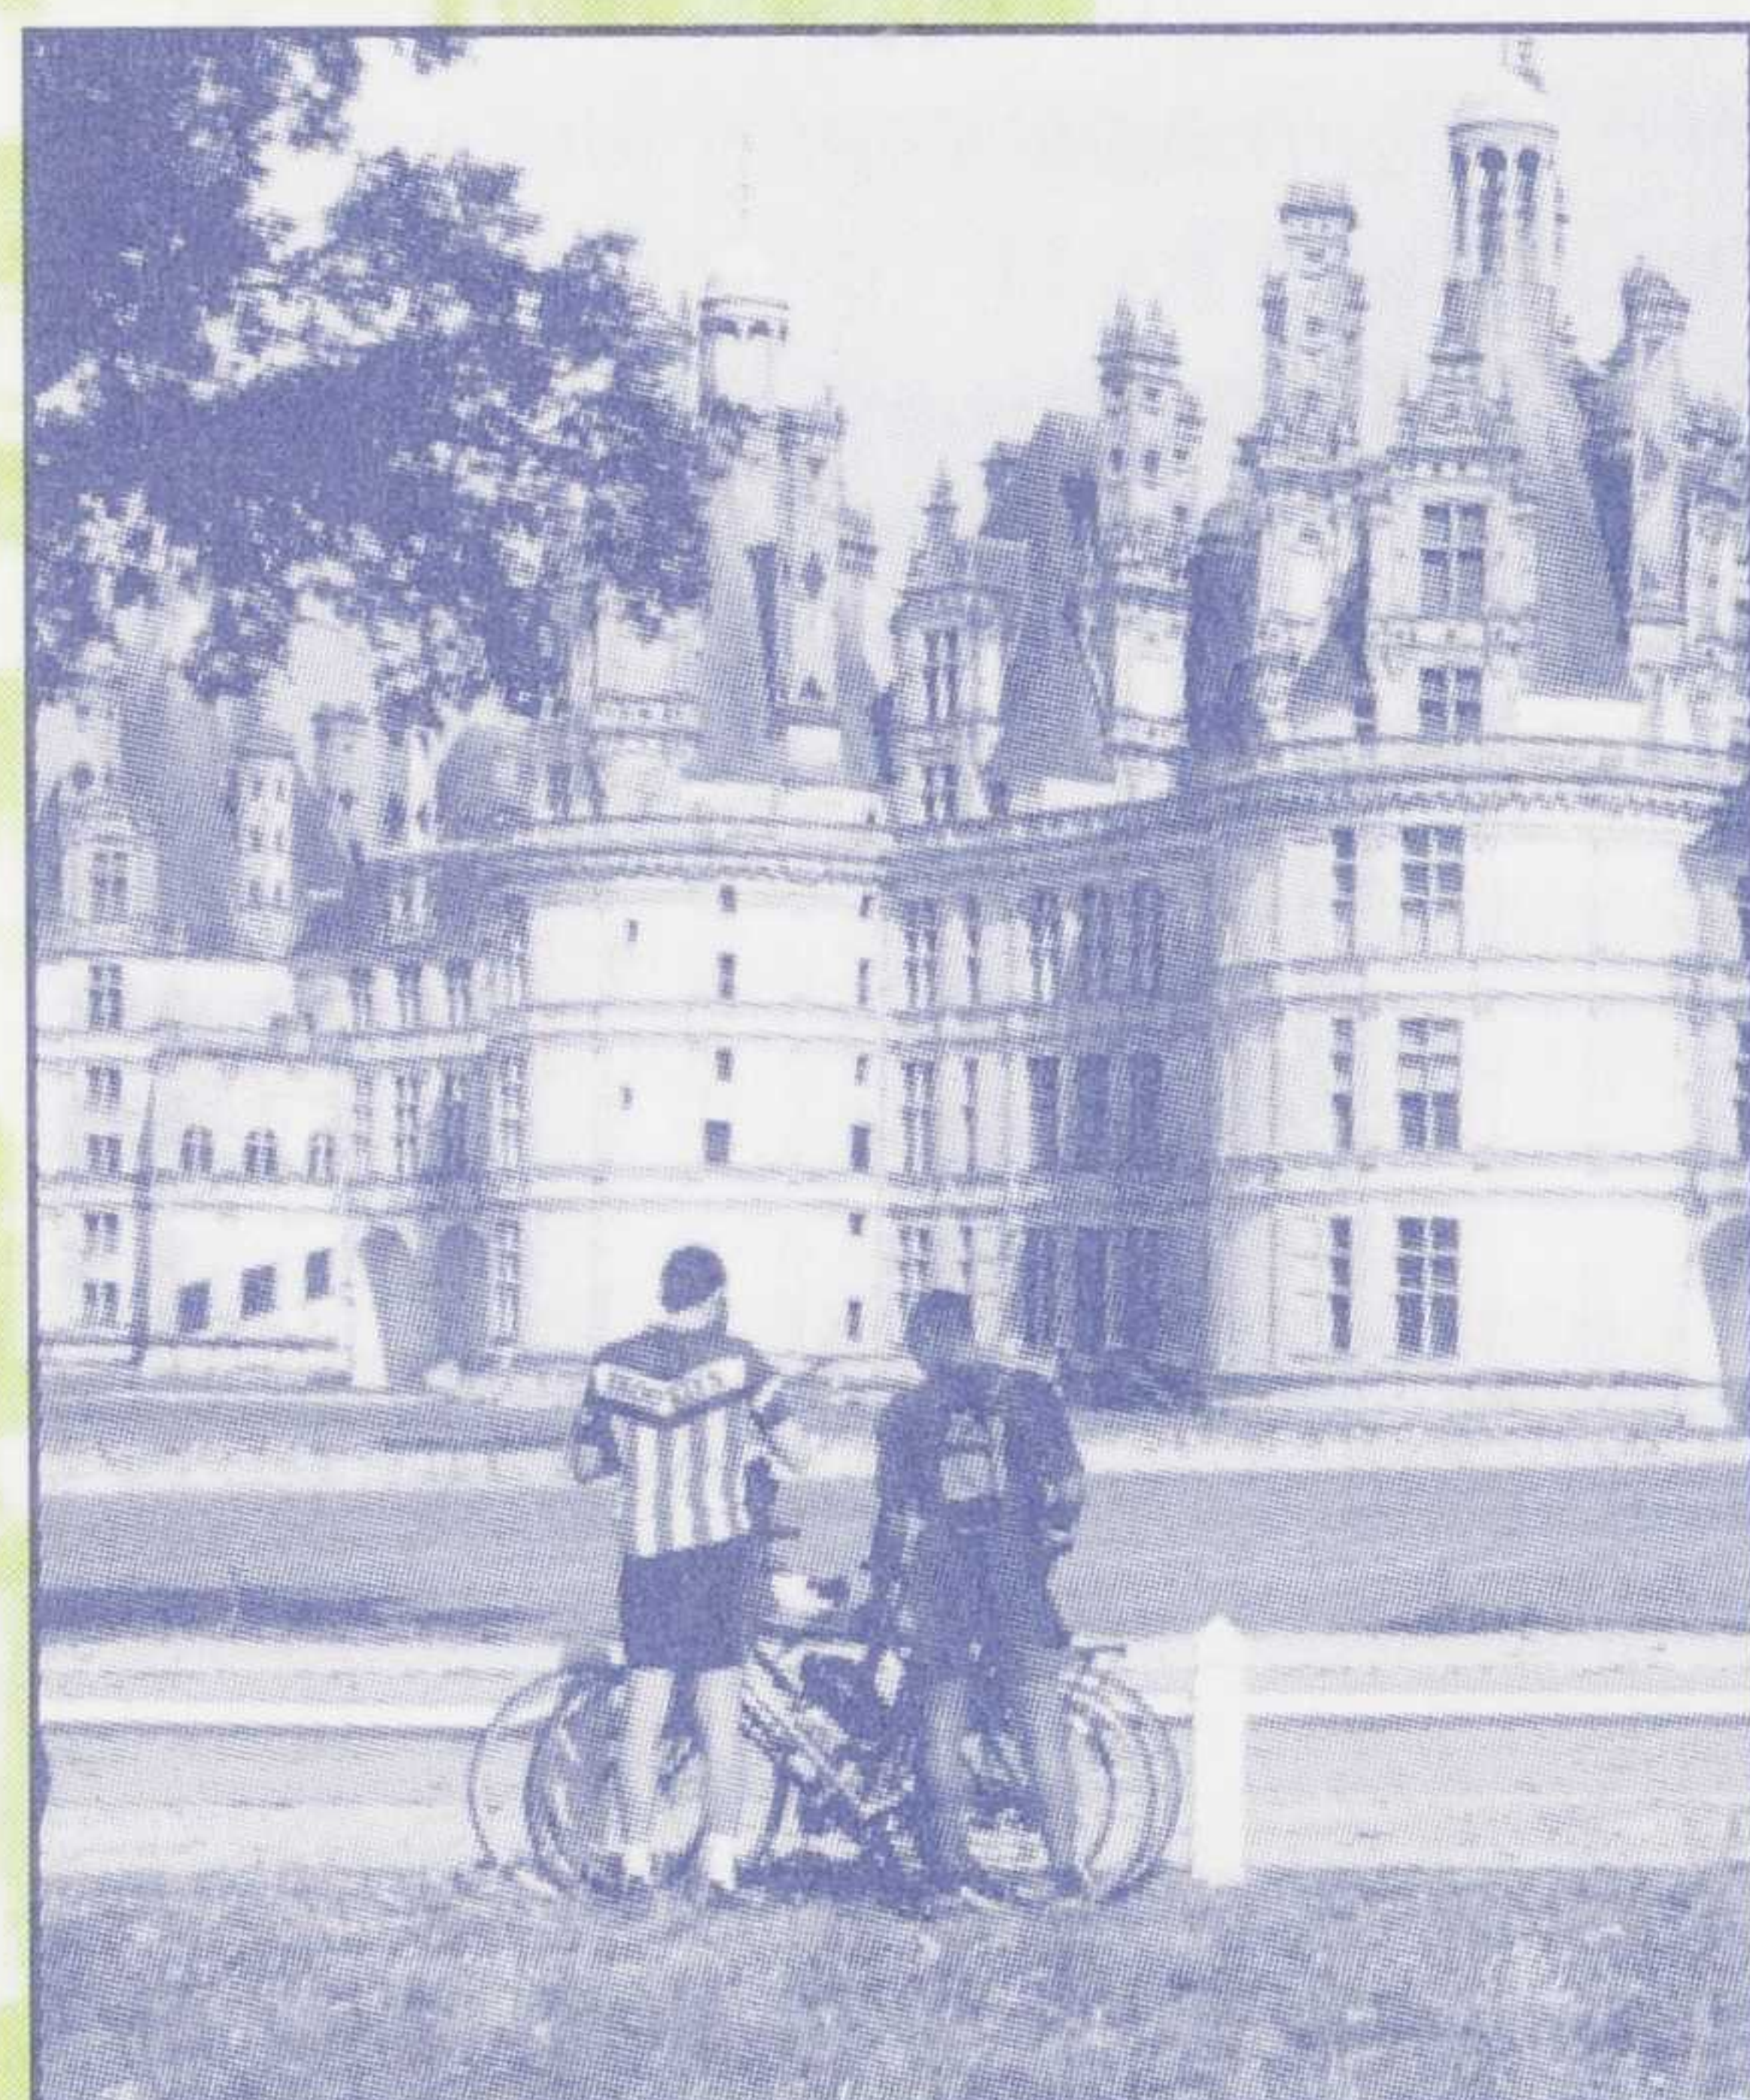

Bike through two sides of France: The enchanting villages, fields, and forests of the region known as "La Douce France" (Gentle France), followed by two of the Loire Valley's most famous chateaux: Chambord and Blois.

June 3 to 8, 2000 -- $1,195.
Single Supp.: $200*
(The above trip is designated for gay men.)

Golden Hillsides

Sample some of the world's most renowned wines as you bike past wine fields and old abbeys to the once-fortified town of Semur-en-Auxois, then back through such famous Burgundy towns as Nuits St. George.

May 24 to June 1, 2000 — $1,595.
Single Supp.: $350*

The Mistral

An exhilarating route takes us first to the turreted medieval duchy of Uzes, through the cliffside tunnels of the Ardeche Gorges, up to the moonlit castle ruins of Vaison-la-Romaine, and to a wine-tasting in renowned Chateauneuf-du-Pape.

June 26 to July 3, 2000 -- $1,595.
Single Supp.: $300*

The Provencal

Cycle back through the centuries at your own comfortable pace. Explore Arles, an old Roman capital with its giant amphitheater still in use. Next come the clifftop remains of Les Baux, then the magical forests and stone-walled villages of the Luberon.

May 6 to 13, 2000 — $1,595.
Single Supp.: $300*

May 14 to 21, 2000 — $1,595.
Single Supp.: $300*

(The May 14 trip, above, is designated for single gay men)

June 18 to 25, 2000 — $1,595.
Single Supp.: $300*

Valley of the Kings

For two centuries, French kings outdid one another as they built palaces amidst the meadows and forests of the Val de Loire. Our trip takes us along quiet riverside roads, connecting the grandest of these historic chateaux.

June 9 to 16, 2000 — $1,595.
Single Supp.: $250*

Traveling alone? There's no need to pay a supplement if you'd like us to match you with a roommate. The single supplement applies only if you want to room alone.

Reserve now and save! You can read more about these trips, and take advantage of substantial early-registration discounts, on our website: www.alysonadventures.com.