

FEE Introductory Book Sets

The FEE staff is often asked where a person can begin a study of the freedom philosophy. So we have carefully selected several paperback titles well suited to provide an introduction to the basic ideas on liberty. We have grouped them into two sets—at substantial savings over single copy prices.

These sets make excellent birthday or holiday gifts. Or, why not give a set to a favorite high school or college student—an excellent way to invest in the future of freedom!

Introductory Set I

The American Tradition by Carson
Economics in One Lesson by Hazlitt
Free Trade, by various authors
Fiat Money Inflation in France by White
Government and Legal Plunder by Russell
The Law by Bastiat
Talking to Myself by Read
The Mainspring of Human Progress by Weaver
The Path of Duty by Read
Planning for Freedom by Mises
The Road to Serfdom by Hayek
What Has Government Done to Our Money? by Rothbard

Only $35.00 (normally listed at $51.75)

Order number 0301XX

Please use special section of the order form.

Introductory Set II

The 12 books in Set II continue the introduction to the freedom philosophy on a slightly more advanced level.

The Anti-Capitalistic Mentality by Mises
Anything That's Peaceful by Read
Bureaucracy by Mises
Capitalism and Freedom by Friedman
Capitalism and the Historians by Hayek
The Conquest of Poverty by Hazlitt
The Flight from Reality by Carson
Free Market Economics: Syllabus and Reader
 (2 vols.) by Greaves
Money and Freedom by Sennholz
The Roots of Capitalism by Chamberlain
Value and Price by Böhm-Bawerk

Only $45.00 (normally listed at $65.80)

Order number 0302XX

Please use separate section of the order form.

