

Audio Cassettes, continued (price: $6.50 each)

Leonard E. Read

THE ESSENCE OF AMERICANISM

The late founding president of FEE eloquently asserts that the real American revolution was a revolution of ideas sparking the spiritual, political, and economic antecedents of the "American" miracle. The twentieth century departed from those concepts—with grave consequences. 1833TF

HOW TO ADVANCE LIBERTY

Drawing on many years of experience, Read offers his wisdom on the effective methods for advancing the principles of the free market and limited government. The key to creative thinkers, talkers and writers of the freedom philosophy is self-improvement. 1836TF

Benjamin A. Rogge

COMPETITION AND MONOPOLY

The late Distinguished Professor of Political Economy of Wabash College, well known for his captivating wit and wisdom, challenges the "fashionable" notions of monopoly which focus on the economy only at a moment in time. Open competition is an endless process of "leapfrog." 1875TF

Hans F. Sennholz

THE ANTICAPITALISTIC MENTALITY

Does mankind have a natural antipathy toward private property? Who are the thought leaders of anti-capitalism? A foremost economist and engaging lecturer addresses those questions. Economic reasoning alone cannot reverse the trend. 1942TF

THE GREAT DEPRESSION

The Great Depression may be viewed in four consecutive phases. Professor Sennholz explodes the myth that unhampered markets caused the depression and clearly shows the disaster was wrought by repeated government intervention. 1945TF

John K. Williams

THE WISDOM OF KING CANUTE

King Canute pretended that his royal gesture could stem the ocean tide to expose the foolishness of his courtiers who extolled his power. The symbolism? Few governments today are wise enough to reveal their limitations to fawning admirers. An accomplished scholar and orator discusses the scenario. 2358TF

BOOKS

Benjamin Anderson

ECONOMICS AND THE PUBLIC WELFARE

A financial and economic history of the United States during the turbulent years from 1914–1946. Anderson's empirical and theoretical criticisms of Keynes and his solid defense of the market system make this an immensely valuable book. 595 pages

Paperback 1010PX $5.00

Frederic Bastiat

THE LAW

Just laws depend upon a law which underlies the law passed by legislatures or declared by rulers. It is a law which provides the framework of liberty.

This is one of the most clear and concise arguments of the case for limiting government in the cause of freedom. Translated in 1950 by Dean Russell, this edition of The Law has been a best seller since then, with more than one million copies in print. 76 pages

Cloth 1520CF $3.50
Paperback 1520PF $2.00

Special offer: 60 cents each for 100 or more copies (paperback) to a single address. Please specify order code 0401XX and enter on the appropriate line of order form.

