

Your will can help ALDF help animals

You can make a significant contribution to animal rights by making a bequest to the Animal Legal Defense Fund.

ALDF is tax-exempt under I.R.C. 501(c)(3) and your bequest will be fully tax-deductible for federal estate tax purposes. Here is a suggested form of bequest:

I give and bequeath to Animal Legal Defense Fund the sum of _____ dollars (or if stock, land or insurance policies, please describe).

ANIMAL LEGAL DEFENSE FUND

The Animal Legal Defense Fund (ALDF) is a nationwide network of over 350 attorneys dedicated to protecting and promoting animal rights. Whenever and wherever animals require legal defense against abuse and exploitation, the Animal Legal Defense Fund is there. Over the past 10 years, we've won precedent-setting victories for animals on every front – in research laboratories, on farms and in the wild.

The Animal Legal Defense Fund is a non-profit organization funded almost entirely by individual, tax-deductible contributions.

If you would like more information about our work, are interested in joining or wish to notify us about your change of address, please contact: The Animal Legal Defense Fund, 1363 Lincoln Avenue, San Rafael, California 94901 (415) 459-0885.
