THE VISION OF JACOB

He slept beneath the desert skies,
His pillar was the desert stone,
Yet heavenly visions blessed his eyes,
And cheered his spirit sad and lone.
He saw the stair of light let down,
Whose shining steps the angels trod,
And called the desert where it shone
The gate of heaven---the house of God.

Thy sleepless eye, O God, still keeps
Its watch o'er every cov'nant heir;
And angels down that ladder's steps
From Thee to me a blessing bear.
Through Christ to Thee ascends my prayer,
Through Christ to me is grace bestowed;
Each place becomes, when Christ is there,
The gate of heaven---the house of God.

In dungeons dark, in dwellings mean,
Where suffering saints have bent the knee,
That mystic ladder has been seen,
And angels come with gifts from Thee.
This night may I the vision see,
My spirit climb that radiant road;
This night my quiet chamber be
The gate of heaven---the house of God!

Love is God's essence; Power but His attribute: therefore is His love greater than His power. RICHARD GARNETT

God is a light that is never darkened; an unwearied life that cannot die; a fountain always flowing; a garden of life; a seminary of wisdom;
a radical beginning of all goodness. FRANCIS QUARLES

All things can be said of God, yet is nothing worthily said of God.
ST. AUGUSTINE
