Dear Friend,

Thank you for contacting Exodus. We believe freedom from homosexuality comes not through a method, but through a person—the Lord Jesus Christ. Since 1976, our network has helped thousands of men and women find a biblical resolution to their homosexuality, and ministered to their family, friends, and church leaders. Unfortunately, due to the large number of people writing and calling us, we're unable to respond personally to every inquiry. We trust you will understand.

Our Exodus headquarters serves as a referral and information center for Christ-centered ministries in North America and abroad. We have included a list of regional Exodus ministries. If you have specific questions or need counseling, we encourage you to contact the agency closest to you. If you are looking for resources—books, tapes, or newsletters—we offer a complete catalog in our Resource Pack.

We strongly encourage you to keep abreast of national news, conferences, and new products through our free monthly Update newsletter. It also includes a testimony, resource reviews, and Exodus headquarters news. Please mark the appropriate place on the Resource Order Form to get started receiving this important newsletter.

Exodus' outreach is made possible by the free-will donations of individuals. Our mailing list is confidential. We do not loan or sell our list—not even to ministries in our network. As a member of the Evangelical Council for Financial Accountability, we are annually audited by an outside independent agency. Your financial participation enables Exodus to continue providing spiritual hope and information to those in need.

We appreciate your interest in this growing field of Christian service. We hope that this information will be helpful to you. Please contact us again if we can be of further help with resources or referrals.

Sincerely in Christ's Service,
