

CELEBRATE WORLD FOOD DAY AT YOUR SCHOOL

Join thousands of other students on Friday, October 16, 1987 and celebrate World Food Day on your campus! The National Student Campaign Against Hunger is working with students to raise awareness of the hunger problem by organizing the following events on this internationally recognized day:

- 1. National Canned Food Drive: The Campaign will again join in sponsoring the Second Annual canned food drive that will provide immediate relief to the hungry in our country.
- 2. Classroom presentations: Work with your professors to arrange discussions about the hunger problem during classes on October 16.
- 3. Teleconference: Host a local session of the National Committee for World Food Day's Teleconference and hear and ask questions of the world's leading hunger experts.
