

DR. JAMES DOBSON, WILLIAM BENNETT, GARY L. BAUER
CHILDREN AT RISK: ARMING OURSELVES TO PROTECT OUR CHILDREN

A fierce battle is raging in our backyards, our schools, our communities and through the media broadcasts coming into our homes. We are engaged in a civil war over the values upon which our nation was founded and the prize at stake is the hearts and minds of our children.

In the newly revised Dobson/Bauer bestseller, Children at Risk, the issues endangering our families have been defined, updated and addressed. An introduction by Bill Bennett as well as practical recommendations at the close of each chapter have been added. This new edition also contains information detailing the accelerated pace at which public policies have deteriorated under the Clinton administration.

Dobson, Bennett and Bauer, three men who stand for traditional values and fight for our families' moral freedom. Send for your copies of this valuable resource today and share them with your family and friends.
