

A large, bold, blue question mark with the word "AIDS" in black, sans-serif capital letters positioned at the top left of the question mark's curve.

AIDS

A large, bold, light blue question mark with the word "AIDS" in black, sans-serif capital letters positioned at the top left of the question mark's curve.

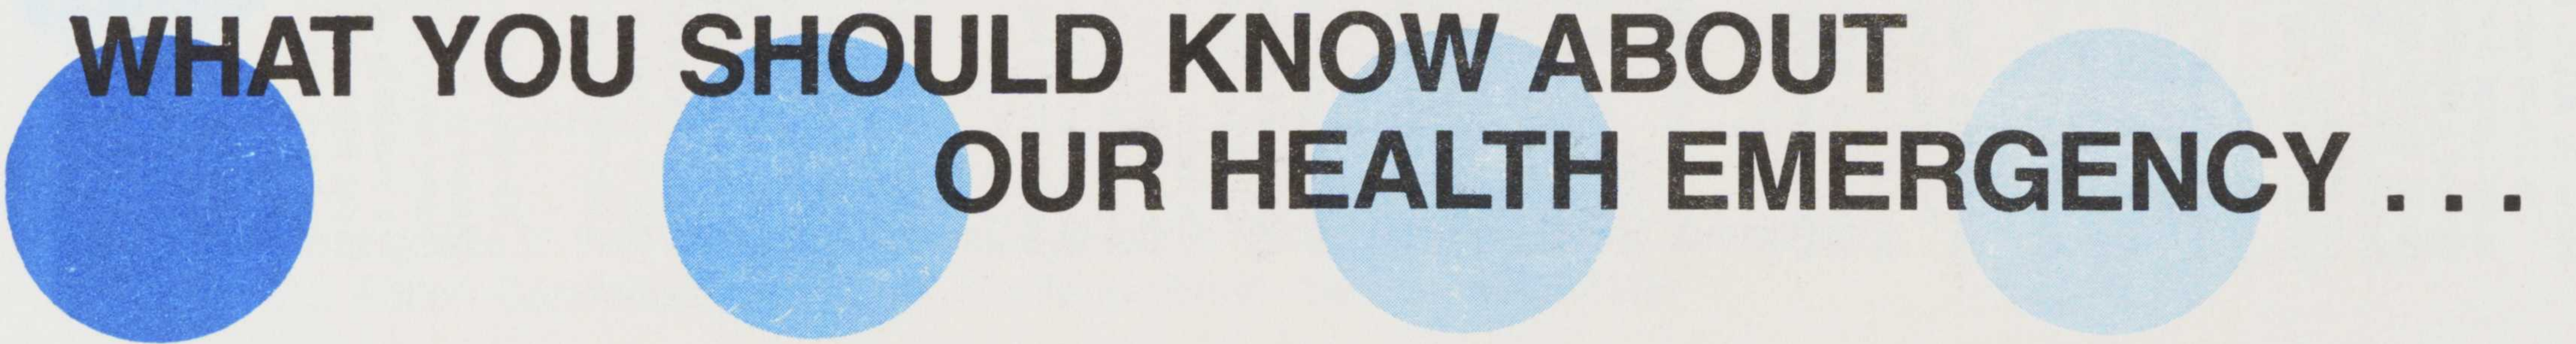

AIDS

A large, bold, very light blue question mark with the word "AIDS" in black, sans-serif capital letters positioned at the top left of the question mark's curve.

AIDS

A large, bold, extremely light blue question mark with the word "AIDS" in black, sans-serif capital letters positioned at the top left of the question mark's curve.

AIDS

The text "WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT OUR HEALTH EMERGENCY . . ." is written in bold, black, sans-serif capital letters. It is positioned below the row of question marks. The words "WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT" are on the first line, and "OUR HEALTH EMERGENCY . . ." is on the second line. The text is centered horizontally. There are four solid blue circles of increasing size from left to right, positioned behind the text: one behind "WHAT", one behind "YOU", one behind "EMERGENCY", and one behind the final period.

WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT
OUR HEALTH EMERGENCY . . .