

All Peoples Congress presents

The Struggle Against Racism, Reagan and the Klan

(from Boston to Washington)

In these times of devastating unemployment (20% nationally, 50% for Black youth) and cutbacks in social services; in an atmosphere of Reagan/Klan racism (attacks on affirmative action and gains of the civil rights movement), unity among the people is essential in order to fight back against these attacks on our basic human rights.

Larry Holmes — National Board, All Peoples Congress and Co-Chair of November 27 National Anti-Klan Demonstration

Eye witness account of the historic November 27 Anti Klan Demonstration and the spontaneous rebellion in Washington, D.C.

Dominic Bozzotto — President, Local 26, Hotel Employees and Restaurant Employees Union

Boston hotel workers struggle against racism and for justice.

also speaking, a November 29th Coalition representative

Friday, December 17
7:30 pm

Church of All Nations
333 Tremont Street, Boston

Donation $2.00

For Childcare call 424-1176, before December 15

All Peoples Congress
355 Boylston Street, Boston 02116
424-1176

labor donated