

Ediciones Vitral, Inc. G.P.O. Box 1913, New York, N.Y. 10116 (212) 255-4060

DISCOVER THE LITERATURE OF THE CARIBBEAN

we now have in stock the following titles edited in Cuba.

MAN TO PAN

John Agard (Guyana)

1982. Casa de las Americas. (Premio Casa de las Americas. Poetry, 1982.)
78 pages. Paperback. 12 X 19 cm.

The theme of Man to Pan is the emergence of the Steelband from the collective historic experience of Trinidad's urban proletariat: the history of a conquered people and their resistance and affirmation in the struggle to overcome.

BC002 - AGARD - $ 3.50

WAGES PAID

James Carnegie (Jamaica)

Ediciones Casa de las Americas, La Habana, 1976. (Premio Casa de las Americas. Nouvelle, 1976). Paperback. 104 pages.

In a short and vivid portrayal of the power relation which existed on a slave plantation in Jamaica, James Carnegie has made an effective use of the past to illustrate and explore problems that are no less urgent in the contemporary reality which he lives.

BC094 - CARNEGIE - $ 2.95

GRASS-ROOT PEOPLE

Harry Narain (Guiana)

1981. Casa de las Americas, Havana. (Premio Casa de las Americas. Short story, 1981.) 109 pages. Paperback. 12,5 X 19 cm.

Grass-Root People by Narain is a group of short stories in creole style, in which in a pleasant and simple way we see the social political reality of the common man from Guiana. A rural man himself, Narain projects the relations of the farmer in his country with his daily problems: his preoccupations, his vital necessities.

The short stories of Narain constitute, beyond doubt, an excellent contribution to the new narrative from Guiana and from the Caribbean.

BC052 - NARAIN - $ 2.95