

June 5, 1985

Dear John

I must apologize to you for taking so long to respond to your letter. You wrote to Ailanthus on March 20th and its now early June.

I will try to send you a copy of whatever leaflets we give out during the summer. I am enclosing a few leaflets we gave out in the past. I am curious about your coming in contact with the Ailanthus leaflet. Where did you get it?

Ailanthus meets every Sunday ~~afternoon~~ evening from 7:30 to 10:00 p.m. at Haley House, 23 Dartmouth St, Boston. Its in the South End between Tremont & Columbia. Join us some evening.

I am a Jesuit priest, presently living in Dorchester and shortly moving to our residence on Harrison Ave. In conjunction with my involvement with Ailanthus, I give retreats, do spiritual direction, and work in a soup kitchen one morning a week. If you are inclined, I'd be happy to hear from you.

Jack Seery SJ