

BOSTON AREA ORGANIZATIONS WORKING WITH NICARAGUA

VISIT NICARAGUA!

More than 80 organizations nationwide arrange travel to Nicaragua as part of their work to end the U.S. contra war. The continuing devastation resulting from US Policy makes our efforts even more crucial. The list below includes groups which work year round and offer frequent departure dates. Also included on this list are organizations which concentrate on recruiting people with special skills and trades to work in Nicaragua.

To receive a complete National List, contact the Central American Information Center Box 50211 San Diego, CA 92105 (619) 583-2925. Their "Travel Programs in Central America" is updated every six months and is available for $3. For local information call the Central American Solidarity Organization CASA at (617) 492-8699.

Get the CASA Newsletter or Call the Central America Hotline at 547-3363 to find out about local events sponsored by these organizations.

WORK BRIGADES AND TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE

NICARAGUA NETWORK & CASA organize harvest, environmental and repair/maintenance brigades. They are open to people without specific skills. Brigades contribute to Nicaragua's development while participants gain a regarding and unforgettable experience. By sharing the daily lives of Nicaraguans, brigadistas learn first hand about the hard work the Nicaraguan people have undertaken to advance their nation.
