

you are there is incredibly important.

3. Become a "Pie Shop" sustainer. This means contributing financially on some type of regular basis with the option of having more direct involvement with the publication. Sustainers are extremely important for the continued existence of the "Pie Shop" through this period, and we simply cannot emphasize this enough. Our hope is that even a few more people will be able to do this. If you so desire, we want to discuss it with you in person. Or you can just send us a check and let us know how often you can do it.
4. Please don't forget that you can always write for the "Pie Shop", or send us some of your thoughts or drawings.
