

"I'M INTERESTED IN RELATING OUR BIBLE STUDY
TO TOPICS OF CURRENT CONCERN, LIKE GAS MILEAGE."

Our faith deals with what God says,
not what learned men think.

The difficulties of unbelief are 10 times greater than the difficulties of faith.

A truth may sometimes amaze us because of its greatness, but it does not stagger our faith; for our faith deals with sacred mysteries, and is familiar with sublimities which it never dreams of comprehending...

If you believe everyone who attends 'your'
church believes exactly as you do there is no question: You are mistaken!

How many church congregations are aware that their Pastor's private beliefs differ from many things he preaches?

The modern Church, Churches are overwhelmed with humanism; putting the 'flesh' on center stage. Is not such practices 'cultic'?

The loyal servant of Christ sees the struggle of our day between God's sacrifice and Man's. It is impossible not to observe at the present the Church is under a cloud...a cloud of the results of unbelief.

Churches are crowded with more unbelieving believers than a dog has fleas!

Every Christian heart and mind needs a fixed point; we must have infallibility somewhere---MINE is Holy Scripture.

Today---Instead of placing themselves at the service of God most people want a God who is at their service. Is not this 'cultic'?

On visiting WESLEY'S CHAPEL on City Road London England I was shown his home. Off from his bedroom I was shown his private prayer room.
The following inscription was there, I copied down the words...

"I sit down alone---
Only God is here.
In His presence I open,
I read His Books
And what I there learn---
I teach."

For a man to preach what God gives him from His WORD; is this 'cultic'?

Of all music, that which most pleases the religious ear is men's applause. But it has no score. It ends and is carried off by the wind.
Nothing remains...

It is written: "...he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever." 1 Jno 2:17
