

General

ALTRUISTIC LOVE: A Study of American Good Neighbors and Christian Saints. By Pitirim A. Sorokin. $3.50

Harvard Studies in Altruism.

The Annals: "Professor Sorokin has made it abundantly clear in his writings of recent years that he considers this to be a period when 'ethical creativity' is needed more than technological innovation. . . . To those who . . . are somewhat disturbed by the disproportionate concern of sociologists with the problems of 'social sewers' this volume appears as a promising adventure in new directions and new realms."

AREOPAGITICA AND OTHER TRACTS. By John Milton. $1.50

BEACONLIGHTS OF WESTERN CULTURE. Edited by Erik Achorn. 3 vols. $5 each. Boxed set, $15

Says Pitirim A. Sorokin: "The three volumes of Beaconlights of Western Culture together comprise the foundation of a sound basic library. Economical in price and space, they provide a fundamental understanding of the main streams of Western thought. Mastery of these three volumes is, in a very real sense, a true general education."

CRISIS AND HOPE IN AMERICAN EDUCATION. By Robert Ulich. $3.75

The New Leader: "Dr. Ulich has rounded out a cycle of systematic and inspiring studies about the contemporary meaning of education. . . . As the American people are forced to face this grave cultural problem, they will find his volume not the only possible statement or answer, but certainly one of the best, most timely and deliberate attempts to express the real hope in American education."

Selected as one of the "outstanding educational books" of the year by the National Education Association.

ERASMUS AND OUR STRUGGLE FOR PEACE. Embodying a fresh translation of Erasmus' Peace Protests! ("The Complaint of Peace.") By Jose Chapiro. $3

John Haynes Holmes: "Here is a book of prime importance. . . . We stand immeasurably indebted to Jose Chapiro for his scholarly, highly readable and unquestionably authoritative volume, which has restored Erasmus to his proper place of leadership in the vast realm of thought."

EXPLORATIONS IN ALTRUISTIC LOVE AND BEHAVIOUR. A Symposium by 16 authorities, edited by Pitirim A. Sorokin. $4.75

Harvard Studies in Altruism.

Selected as one of the "50 outstanding religious books of the year" by the Religious Books Roundtable of the American Library Association.

The Annals of the American Academy: "This book is an attempt to explore the nature and bases—religious, biological, psychological, parapsychological, philosophical, mathematical, and sociocultural—of altruistic love and behavior. . . . All in all, it is an intriguing and stimulating book, intended to provoke and explore and to open up new vistas for research."

FOOT OF PRIDE. The Pressure of Christendom on the People of Israel for 1900 Years. By Malcolm Hay. $4.50

New York Herald Tribune: "A detailed and moving account of the indignities and cruelties Jews have undergone at the hands of Christians and others in the West from St. John Chrysostom in the fourth century to Hitler in the twentieth. . . . The cumulative effect of horror piling on horror for two millennia is very great. . . . Major Hay is a scholarly historian, and it is clearly a work of great and sound erudition."

The New Republic: "The great tragedy of European Jewry under Hitler has thus far been little reflected in the mainstream of European and American historical literature. . . . Now Malcolm Hay's volume, at once an informed historical treatise and an eloquent confession of guilt has in part filled this gap. . . . this profession of collective guilt will remain an important document of our age."

FREEDOM IS THE RIGHT TO CHOOSE: An Inquiry into the Battle for the American Future. By Archibald MacLeish. (Seeds-of-Thought Series) $2.75

The Annals: "In this collection of essays Archibald MacLeish offers an eloquent statement of the liberal analysis of the crisis of our time—a highly useful statement for helping us understand the strength and weakness of that position."

New York Herald Tribune: "[These essays] are more than beautifully written; they are filled with the ardor of a firm conviction supporting a high ideal. They are genuinely eloquent. . . . MacLeish has described irreproachably the correct attitude of a free citizen of a free republic."

The Virginia Quarterly Review: "Breathing the spirit of integrity, this book should be read by all those who feel unwillingly—and fatally—attracted to the McCarthyism and hysteria of our day."

Original Beacon Press edition republished in Great Britain.

GATE OF SILENCE. (Poetry) By W. T. Stace. $1.75

GREAT REVIVALISTS. By George Godwin. $2.50

Literary Guide: "Mr. Godwin makes his historical approach complete by devoting his first three chapters to a summary of the psychology of conversion, crowd psychology, and revivalist technique, and then throughout the book applies this to his subjects which include Peter the Hermit, John Wesley, Sankey and Moody, William Booth, and Evan Roberts. . . . He has succeeded in reducing a vast amount of material into easily accessible limits."

THE GOSPEL OF EMERSON. Edited by Newton Dillaway. Cloth $2.50, Paper $1.50

Harry Emerson Fosdick: ". . . a very competent job in boiling down the essential meaning of Emerson's message. I read it with zest."

HERBLOCK BOOK: Text and cartoons by Herbert Block. $2.75

New York Times Book Review: ". . . one of the keenest and best informed commentaries on post-war American politics, economics and foreign relations that has come down the pike these past seven years. Herblock's text is a spicy mixture of observation, criticism and philosophy. And Herblock is no more shy about expressing his political philosophy in words than in his cartoons."

HOSTAGES OF CIVILIZATION: The Social Sources of Anti-Semitism in Germany. By Eva G. Reichmann. $3.50

N. Y. Times Book Review: "The author concludes that the explanation for the catastrophe of the German Jews lies exclusively in the realm of German history and geography. . . . an important contribution to the study of anti-Semitism."

HOW TO CO-EXIST Without Playing the Kremlin's Game. By James P. Warburg. $3.00

U. S. Quarterly: "Mr. Warburg comments on problems of various troubled areas of the world, and the unhappy American failure to contribute to the settlement of such problems because of the total emphasis on rearmament. The wide information of the author. . . the readability of the book, and its uncompromising directness make it interesting and useful to those who believe that foreign policy should be based on popular understanding and popular control."

IMPACT OF AMERICA ON EUROPEAN CULTURE. By Bertrand Russell, Sean O'Faolain, et al. $2

The Annals: "It is rash to deal with so vast a subject in less than one hundred pages of text, still more rash when six authors are concerned, still more rash when the contributions are broadcast talks. Yet despite the natural fears that such a project provokes, the experiment is a success."

LAST CHANCE — Eleven Questions That Will Decide Our Destiny — Answered by International Authorities. By H. M. Basner, George K. A. Bell (Bishop of Chichester), Emil Brunner, Pearl Buck, Benedetto Croce, Henry Daniel-Rops, John Dos Passos, Pablo Martínez del Río, Francesco Flora, J. B. S. Haldane, Charles Journet, Toyohiko Kagawa, Trygve Lie, Archibald MacLeish, Henry Miller, Max Picard, Servapalli Radhakrishnan, Bertrand Russell, George Santayana, Soebandrio, Theophil Spoerri, Luigi Sturzo, Adrien Turel, H. Venkatasubbiah, Karl Vossler, Lin Yutang. Edited by Clara Urquhart. $2.50

Mme. Pandit: "Of great value at a time when the world's combined mental and spiritual resources are needed to point out the path towards peace."

MAGIC, SCIENCE AND RELIGION. By Bronislaw Malinowski. Introduction by Robert Redfield. $4

The Philosophical Review: "Anyone interested in ethics, political theory, religion, or semantics will find valuable material collected for him in this book."

MAN VERSUS THE STATE. By Herbert Spencer. With a new Introduction by Professor A. E. Heath. $1.50

New Republic: "Reprint of a classic protest against authoritarianism. A. E. Heath in his introduction notes that Spencer was dealing with 'those fundamental problems of the relation between individuals and government which will continue to concern each age in turn. . . .'"

MIND AT WORK AND PLAY. By Sir Frederic Bartlett. $2.50

American Journal of Psychiatry: "In his The Mind at Work and Play, Sir Frederick Bartlett, professor of experimental psychology at Cambridge University, has written a valuable and readable book. . . . It is not unlikely that the 142 pages of this easily read book compress about all that the average—not average man, but let us say 'average specialist, not an experimental psychologist'—will want to carry around as permanent mental furniture in this area. It is hoped that there will be more of this type of science writing which may fairly be described as humanist literature."