THE STEERING STAR

[Old English Name for the Pole Star]

"I AM...The bright and morning star." Rev. 22:16

Not by the meteor's wandering flight,
Not by some comet's slow return,
Not by the falling star's brief light,
Or the false suns that palely burn;

But by the Pole-Star's steadfast glow,
The fixed planets that abide,
When fogs are thick and clouds hang low,
The mariner his bark will guide.

Oh, wavering lights of man's device,
Oh, burned-out suns of human thought,
Your fitful gleams will not suffice
To find the haven that we sought,

Light of the world, our hope is here;
Star of our faith, we look to Thee;
Sure Word of God, unwavering, clear,
Guide Thou our souls across the sea.
