

Mutual Aid: A Factor of Evolution (Freedom Press; pb., 278 pp.) $12.50
Kropotkin's classic refutation of the "survival of the fittest" Social Darwinism underlying early anthropology and sociology. Probably his most significant work. ISBN 0-900384-36-0

The State (Freedom Press; pb., 60 pp.) $4.50
Kropotkin's classic essay dealing with the historic development of the state. Outlines the emergence of the statist form of political power in Western Europe. ISBN 0-900384-33-6

MALATESTA, Errico
Malatesta's Anarchy (Freedom Press; pb., 54 pp.) $3.95
An eloquent introduction to the basics of anarchist communism, by Italy's revolutionary hero. ISBN 0-900384-07-7

Malatesta: His Life and Ideas (Vernon Richards, ed.)
(Freedom Press; pb., 309 pp.) $10.50
Essays and texts by Italy's great anarchist activist-philosopher — with a short biography by V. Richards. ISBN 0-900384-15-8

ROCKER, Rudolf
Anarcho-Syndicalism (Freedom Press; pb., 95 pp.) $6.50
Description of the theory and practice of anarcho-syndicalism, the guiding light of the IWW, the Spanish anarchist movement, and revolutionary unions throughout the world. Includes a brief history of the movement up to 1937. (Not to be confused with the expensive Pluto Press edition or a smaller pamphlet with the same title.) ISBN 0-948984-05-8

Nationalism and Culture (Michael Coughlin; hc., 614 pp.) $20.00
Hailed by Albert Einstein, Bertrand Russell, Charles A. Beard, Lewis Mumford, etc., this masterpiece dissects the State in all its manifestations as "the principal enemy of human social life and cultural development."

VARIOUS AUTHORS

Fighting the Revolution (Aldgate Press)
#1: Essays on Makhno, Zapata, and Durruti (pam., 40 pp.) $3.00
#2: Louise Michel, Kropotkin, and the Paris Commune (pam., 48 pp.) $3.50

HISTORY

ADAMIC, Louis
Dynamite: A Century of Class Violence in America (Rebel Press; pb., 224 pp.) $12.50
A classic reprint: colorful history of American labor/radical bombings, riots, assassinations, sabotage, and class anger. Focuses on 1890-1930. ISBN 0-946061-03-3

ANDERSON, Andy
Hungary '56 (Black and Red; pb., 138 pp.) $2.80
Long considered the best work dealing with the "uprising" — back in print!

ANGRY BRIGADE
The Angry Brigade (Elephant Editions; pb., 73 pp.) $3.00
A compilation of angry documents from Europeans who were influenced by the dispersion of situationist theory in the late 60's and early 70's.

ANONYMOUS
Paris: May '68 (Rebel Press; pam., 55 pp.) $3.95
An eyewitness account of two weeks spent in Paris during May '68. Originally published in Solidarity in June '68.

ARSHINOV, P.
History of the Makhnovist Movement: 1918-1921
(Freedom Press; pb, 284 pp.) $12.50

Once again in print, Arshinov's detailed work is the only first-hand account available in English of the Makhnovist movement during the Russian Revolution. The Makhnovists represented a significant Ukrainian anti-authoritarian alternative to the Bolsheviks before their tragic fall to the Red Army and political intrigue. Translated by Lorraine and Fredy Perlman, with introductions by Voline and Colin Ward. ISBN 0-900384-40-9

BAYER, Oswald
Anarchism and Violence: Servino Di Giovanni in Argentina, 1923-1931
(Elephant Editions; pb., 250 pp.) $9.95

Bayer's attempt to reconstruct the activities of this Italian anarchist in Argentina. An important contribution to the ongoing debate concerning direct action and anarchism.

BERNERI, Marie Louise
Journey Through Utopia (Freedom Press; pb., 340 pp.) $10.95

All the major (and some less known) writings on Utopia since Plato's Republic are described and criticized. Warns us of the doom that awaits those who put their trust in an ordered and regimented world. ISBN 0-900384-21-2

Neither East Nor West: Selected Writings, 1939-1948
(Freedom Press; pb., 192 pp.) $10.95

Culled from the pages of War Commentary and Freedom, this is a collection of more than fifty articles written by Berneri during World War II and immediately after. Perceptive analysis of the politics and policies of the war and the post-war repression on both sides of the "iron curtain." ISBN 0-900384-42-5