

True Heroes of the Faith

The "Heroes of the Faith" that we read about in the New Testament book of Hebrews were individuals who suffered for their beliefs. That was long ago, though. Are these stories mere tales of a distant past? Maybe in America. Maybe in the Western world. But to the vast numbers of our brothers and sisters across the globe, these stories describe a present reality of which we cannot even conceive. In China, Vietnam, Egypt, India, Pakistan and many other nations, the Church is under seige. In fact, worldwide Christian persecution not only exists, it is on the rise.

Author and professor Dr. Paul Marshall, concerned that Western Christians have not been aware of this tragic truth, has written a newly released book documenting recent stories of Christian persecution in Their Blood Cries Out. This timely and extensively researched volume will help you to hear the true stories of devout pastors and laymen who are suffering because they have chosen to follow Jesus Christ. Dr. Marshall's aim in writing Their Blood Cries Out is to equip you to become a voice for those whose voices have been silenced. Practical suggestions for readers who want to help end the suffering of others can be found in the book's final chapter and appendices.
