

into a socialist revolution, into a form of proletarian dictatorship with a number of distinctive features — a multiparty system in which the Marxist-Leninist Party played the leading role, the existence of National Fronts which united all progressive mass organizations. (Socialism: Theory and Practice*, November 1983, Moscow, p. 25.)

Freedom Charter and subsequently defending the new state of people's democracy against racist and imperialist counter-revolution. ("The Freedom Charter is our Lodestar", part 3, in Sechaba, September 1985, p. 30.)

* A Soviet monthly digest, published in Moscow by Novosti Press Agency.