If Wishes Were Only Reality . . .

TO THE EDITOR:

Everyone has a wish list (one has to do something while idling in traffic), and here's one of mine:

Instead of sending 14 million dollars to the Contras in Nicaragua, wouldn't it be great to allot the money to:

- 1) food for undernourished kids
- 2) research for AIDS
- 3) low-cost housing
- 4) cleaning out the weeds in Spy Pond

First on my list, would be the wish that such legislation as aid to contras never be thought of at all.

Sincerely,
Doris Powell
