

- (c) To cooperate with or engage the services of any person, firm, association, corporation, government, or public agency which may assist in carrying out the corporate purposes, and in furtherance of such purposes to grant financial or other voluntary assistance thereto.
- (d) To enter into affiliations, contracts, agreements, undertakings or otherwise within the limitations provided by law.
- (e) To do any and all things which may be necessary or proper in connection with its purposes.

5. The corporation is not organized for pecuniary profit; it shall not have any power to issue certificates of stock or declare dividends; no part of its net earning shall inure to the benefit of any private member or individual; and no officer, member or employee shall receive or be lawfully entitled to receive any pecuniary profit from the operation of the corporation, except a reasonable compensation for the services in effecting one or more of its purposes.

In the event of any dissolution or liquidation of the affairs of the corporation, the property and assets of the corporation shall be distributed to or among one or more similar corporations or foundations within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as the same is now in effect or as it may be hereafter amended, or such property and assets shall be given to the municipal government of cities in foreign nations with which this corporation has been concerned to be used for the purposes of this corporation set forth herein.

6. The members of the corporation shall be composed of such individuals as may be admitted to membership in the manner prescribed by the By-laws of the Corporation.

7. The corporation will operate to some extent throughout the world but its principal operations will be conducted in the United States.

8. The principal office of the corporation is to be located in (The Jurisdiction of any U.S. City). It may establish such other offices either in or outside of the United States as it may from time to time determine.

9. The number of directors of the corporation, until the first meeting of the corporation, shall be (at least the statutory minimum) and the names and addresses of these persons who are to act in the capacity of directors until the selection of their successors are:

10. The Board of Directors of the corporation shall be elected in the manner prescribed by the By-laws of the corporation, and they shall have power to make By-laws for the government of the corporation and to alter, change or amend such By-laws.