

We need your help....
We're asking you (the advertisers) to make the decisions, not special interest groups.

—Warren Littlefield, NBC, upon noting networks' big losses on TRACEY
THURMAN STORY movie

MARCH

Thomas Scott
WAFR Engineer

Erie County, Pennsylvania, district attorney secured two obscenity convictions; AFA Law Center assisted in prosecution.

Procter and Gamble won a lawsuit against people promoting the rumor that the company supported the church of satan.

APRIL

Scott Thomas
Attorney

CLear-TV announced boycott of S. C. Johnson, Pfizer for TV advertising policy.

If you read newspapers, you get the impression that religion has about the same influence on Americans' lives as cholera...if you do catch it, it's painful, foul-smelling and dangerous.

—Paul Prather
Lexington, Kentucky
Herald Leader

MAY

NEA gave $25,000 tax dollars to NC-17 (X) rated Poison—"most important gay American film in years...."

John Riley
WAFR Program Director

In the main, prime-time has done to religion what dogs do to fireplugs, pouring on the ridicule....

—Critic Howard Rosenberg

Coalition of 25 left-wing groups announced campaign against AFA.

JUNE

Sherry Black
WAFR On Air Personality

J. J. Jasper
WAFR On Air Personality

Philadelphia federal judge issued restraining order preventing NEA lawyer from further defamatory comments about AFA and Don Wildmon.

CBS lost $2 million in ad cancellations on pro-abortion
ABSOLUTE STRANGERS movie.

AUGUST

John Baggett
WAFR On Air Personality
(Part-time)

WAFR, American Family Radio, went on the air.

NEA grant supported explicit homosexual film TONGUES UNTIED; more than two-thirds PBS stations refused to air the homosexual porn film.

AT&T, Honda, Dr Pepper,
Wendy's take ads off SNL.

U.S. Supreme Court ruling favored AFA arguments in nude dancing case.

SEPTEMBER

Linda Pender
Data Processing

Angela Wildmon
WAFR On Air Personality

NEA grant money trickled down to Jesus Christ Condom film at New York International Festival of Lesbian and Gay Films.

Mass murderer Jeffrey Dahmer was revealed as a porn user.

Religion is definitely not taken seriously in Hollywood. The actors don't know religious people.
—Producer John Furia, Jr.

A Dallas, Texas, jury convicted California Publishers Liquidating, nation's largest porn video distributor.

Spitting on Christ was a great deal of fun—especially for me, being a woman.... I can't embrace a male god....
—Amanda Donaho, lesbian character on NBC's LA LAW of movie role

I can't think of anyone [in Hollywood] in the last 20 years who is active in church affairs.
—Producer John Prizer

Kathy Coates
Host, WAFR Radio Program
"From the Heart"

1992

FEBRUARY

A new study revealed prime-time
TV censors religion from content.

AFA Law Center sued on behalf of Operation Rescue Christians in Wichita.

MARCH

NEA funded "Queer City" with a poem depicting Jesus as a homosexual pedophile.

A Federal court ruling allowed schools to continue teaching occult, witchcraft in
"Impressions" curriculum; AFA Law Center committed to appeal decision.

APRIL

Hollywood named Silence of the Lambs—with its cannibalism, profuse profanity, brutal murder scenes—best movie of 1991.

MAY

On National Day of Prayer, Christians in 3,000 cities joined AFA's Meet at City Hall event to pray for America.

Town & Country Food Stores,
San Angelo, Texas, pulled porn magazines from 134 stores.

About 35,000 stores had removed porn magazines from their shelves in six years.

If the world could see what I see in the womb, there wouldn't be an abortion.
—Shari Richard
Ultrasonographer